COUNCIL TO SET DATE FOR CHARTER ELECTION

December 1 or 8 Expected to Be Day of Passing on Instrument That Will Govern City

The date for the charter election in Oakland will be fixed by the city council at a regular meeting Monday night. By the terms of the state constitution the date cannot be later than December 15, as the law provides that the election must be held within thirty days after the expiration of the publication of the instrument.

It is probable, according to members of the council and the city clerk that the election will be set for December 1 or 8. The provision that the election must be held within thirty days of the expiration of the publication of the proposed charter is balanced by the requirement that at least twenty-five days' notice of election must be given. This would result in the election being limited to dates between the beginning of December and December 15.

Publication of the charter was commenced October 24, and has to run for twenty days, including the portion of that time already expired. Since anxiety is being entertained by the council that the people are not familiarizing themselves with the proposed charter, and every effort is being made to bring it to the attention of the voters, the publication being made in both local papers in this city.

WIFE KNOWS TOO MANY.

Louis D. Stone of Oakland had not been married to Belle Stone, a non-resident, many months until he became aware of the fact that she knew more men than a ward politician. He became suspicious and set a watch with the result that one day he caught James P. Stone making an attempt to leave his home. The husband fled from the home and in due time instituted suit for a divorce in the Superior Court here. An interlocutory decree was awarded to him last yesterday afternoon.

BOY LOSES THUMB AND FINGERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—John C. Aiden, boy living at 602 G Street, lost a thumb and two fingers torn off by the explosion of a dynamite cap near his home last evening. He was taken to the French hospital, where Dr. Aiden completed the amputation.

S.S.S. CURES RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is an acid blood fermentation, a souring of the circulation from an excess of uric acid in the blood stream. This uratic impurity is transmitted to the blood through the process of absorption, and comes as a result of constipation, indigestion and other systemic irregularities.

When the blood becomes infected with this uratic impurity the complications of Rheumatism are set up. The circulation is no longer able to furnish the different muscles, nerves and joints with the nourishment and strength they need, but instead deposits into these members the gritty, pain-producing acid with which it is contaminated.

Rheumatism is usually manifested in the joints and muscles. It is here its sharpest twinges of pain are felt and stiffening of ligaments and tendons first commence. The pain of Rheumatism is caused by the contact of the sensory nerves with the gritty, acid formation which uric acid causes to accumulate in the corpuscles of the blood about the joints. The severer symptoms of the disease come on gradually. Constantly the circulation deposits the uric acid particles into the muscles and joints, and slowly the natural fluids are dried up or hardened. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic and serious, and if allowed to run on, may permanently cripple or break down the health of the sufferer. The disease is sometimes inherited, for like all blood troubles, it can be transmitted from parent to child. This explains why some persons are afflicted with Rheumatism who have always been healthy otherwise.

There is but one way to cure Rheumatism, and that is to purify the blood—cleanse the circulation of the uric acid impurity. S. S. S. goes into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by removing every particle of the uratic matter, and building up the blood to a healthful condition, this medicine destroys the cause and cures Rheumatism.

When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood of the acid impurity, enriched and strengthened the circulation, then the nerves are quieted, the muscles become elastic, the blood tissues are thickened and freshened, all pain disappears, and the feverish, inflamed flesh is made comfortable. Nothing equals S. S. S. as a cure for Rheumatism, because nothing equals it as a blood purifier. No matter whether you have the disease in muscular, articular or inflammatory form, you can have no permanent relief from its aches and pains until you have cleansed and purified the blood. S. S. S. has cured thousands and it will cure you. We have a special book on Rheumatism which we will send together with any medical advice free to all who write and request same.

GRAND JURY PROBE GOES DEEP INTO BRIBERY CASE

Ex-Supervisor Coburn Gives Testimony for Hours.

FURNITURE CONTRACT TAKEN UP IN DETAIL

Time and Manner in Which the Payments Were Made Are Told by Treasurer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The grand jury investigation of the San Mateo county official graft cases began here last night and spent hours in taking the testimony of ex-supervisor Carl J. Coburn, County Clerk Nash, ex-county treasurer P. P. Chamberlain and present County Treasurer Underhill. Assistant District Attorney Lane and Assistant Attorney-General Raymond Benjamin represented the state in the grand jury room. All of the testimony related to the county court house office furniture contract of H. S. Crocker company and the part played by Dr. D. E. Blackburn, the supervisor now under indictment for bribery. Charles Marshall, the outside representative of the Crocker company, Jesse Marks, the go-between, and others who are mixed-up in the graft scandal.

REPEATS STORY.

Coburn repeated the story in detail to the grand jury as it has already been made public. County Clerk Nash produced the minutes of the board of supervisors for the year 1919, when the contract was awarded to the H. S. Crocker company to supply the new Redwood City court house with furniture. The whole history of the transaction, from the opening of the bids up to the award of the contract and the action taken on the same by the several members of the board of supervisors and District Attorney Bullock, was followed through the record. Nash also gave evidence concerning the deal for additional furniture made recently, and in connection with which Dr. Blackburn is under indictment for accepting a bribe.

EXAMINE TREASURER.

The examination of the county treasurer related wholly to the time and manner in which payments, and the warrant issued for the last payment and approved by Supervisors D. E. Blackburn, G. M. Francis and J. F. Casey, and countersigned by Supervisor P. H. McEvoy, were produced. Francis, Casey and McEvoy do not, however, figure in the scandal, as the contract with which the latest charges of graft are associated was awarded and its effect before they were installed in office.

At the next session of the grand jury Charles Marshall, the Crocker company's outside man, will be examined.

NILE CLUB PLEADS FOR NEW MEMBERS

Would Build Egyptian Temple As a Means of Rousing Interest.

The members of the Nile Club are making a strenuous effort to raise money with which to build their Egyptian Hall in a circular which is now being sent to the members, a life membership in the club is now for $50, payable in six monthly installments of $8 each, beginning December 1. As only fifty of these memberships can be obtained it is predicted that they will be taken long before the first of the month arrives. At the present time the initiation fee has been made $10 with the idea of getting many new members.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

The following is the circular letter being sent out by the club officials:

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 1, 1920.

"Dear Sir and Esteemed Club Member:

"What's the matter with the Nile Club? No! don't say 'It's all right' for it is not at all right. It is in the right location, has the right quality of membership, right funds and is now in the right way. It is the only things lacking to make it 'All Right.' We need, and must have at once, the addition hoped and prayed for ever since we 'moved in.' Not only do we need the room to better accommodate our members at lunch time and to enable all of them to enjoy the entertainment offered on the rare nights when the good fellows of the club get together, but we need it for the time being. The club, with the beautiful Egyptian Hall built, not only will the present members patronize the club to a greater extent than now, but many desirable men of Oakland will seek membership, thus the work will have beyond ear-shot of the Board of Directors and the Pyramid will stand for all time.

GRAND PRIZE.

"What are you going to do about it? Be one of fifty to take out a life membership for $50 payable in six monthly installments of $8 each, beginning December 1, 1920. If you are not over seventy years old it is a good investment, and you should consider it a privilege to get in on this proposition. If you are of that ripe age you should certainly do it as it will be an ideal resting place. Send your name in at once—today! as the first fifty will be the winners of the Grand Prize. Thank! I knew you would not let this golden opportunity slip.

"Now there is one thing more and we will close the deal and call it a success. The initiation fee is $10—made so to enable every member of the club, especially you, to put up the amount of a good new member. Do it now while you think of it, but keep thinking of it until you do it.

"Yours for the Club,
H. C. CAPVILL, President.

P. S.—Come! All together! Let's start the building January 1st, as a New Year present to ourselves.

TWO MEN CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Henry Arvizon of 44 Kearney street, and T. Farrel of 242 Crocker street, were arrested by Police Officer O'Brien and Casey and charged at the city prison this morning with robbery. Jose Miranta of 718 Pacific street, claims that he was drinking with the pair in the saloon at Montgomery and Pacific streets, they knocked him down and robbed him of $120.

LUCY BANNING AND AFFINITY WILL NOT RETURN

Runaway Pair Lining at Tia Juana and Refuse to See Visitors.

WILL TOUR MEXICO IN AUTOMOBILE SHORTLY

Pleas of Family Representatives Unavailing and Couple Ignore All Overtures.

TIA JUANA, Mexico, Nov. 2.—Sending word to her husband that she would never return to him, Mrs. Lucy Banning Greenleaf, an actor, the runaway wife of Mace Greenleaf, the runaway actor, in an interview with Ward Chapman, his representative, announced her determination to remain with her affinity, Robert Ross. The runaway pair are at the Hotel Boker in this city and will probably remain here for the next week, when they intend to tour the state of Mexico in an automobile. They refused to receive any visitors or communications either from Greenleaf or from Judge Erskine Ross, the father of the young man.

ELOPERS ARE DEFIANT.

Greenleaf, with his attorney, Ward Chapman, and Dr. Robert Lee Dorney, arrived here yesterday with the intention of persuading Mrs. Greenleaf to return to Los Angeles. Dr. Dorney carried a message from Mrs. Banning and Attorney Chapman acted as Greenleaf's representative at an interview which he managed to secure.

Mrs. Greenleaf and Ross gave the same answer to the pleas of the family representatives. They said they had resolved never to come back to their respective homes, and would probably not return to the United States again.

ALLEGES NEGLLECT.

It is said that Mrs. Greenleaf blames Greenleaf's alleged neglect of her for her flight with Ross. She has made the statement to friends that if her husband had the little attentions that she had come to expect from him during their courtship, and also allowed that Greenleaf's neglect became unbearable to her.

When Greenleaf left for Los Angeles, he left immediately for Los Angeles without making a statement. According to the reports it is said that he does not intend to live up his wife to Ross, but will consult with him as to the measure to be taken to bring the runaways back.

WOMAN DENIED FAMILY ALLOWANCE FROM ESTATE

Incompetency of evidence to show that Florentina Perez Parola of Livermore was ever the wife of Martin Parola, who once kept a famous cafe in the Latin quarter of San Francisco and left his entire estate, valued at $100,000, to his daughter, Ninatti, cashier in his restaurant, has caused Judge William S. Wells, sitting in the probate department of the Superior Court, to deny her petition for a family allowance pending the outcome of her contest of her alleged husband's will.

Judge Wells has also entered an order approving the Ninatti woman's report on her administration of the estate as executor of her husband's will, and her petition for distribution of the property to herself.

NEW MINISTERS WELCOMED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Two diplomatic ceremonies of importance took place at the State Department today. The President received first the credentials of Naiguasu Cusana Consalvina, the new Italian Ambassador. He also received the letters of credence of Byrn, the new Norwegian minister.

GIVE YOUR STOMACH A NICE VACATION

Don't Do It By Starving It Either—Let a Substitute Do the Work.

The old adage, "All work and no play makes one a dull boy" applies just as well to the stomach as of the most important organs of the human system, as it does to the man, his self.

If your stomach is worn out and rebels against being forced to do the work of a dull boy, the only thing you can do is to give it a rest. Employ a substitute for a short time and see if it will not more than repay you in results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a willing and most efficient substitute. They themselves digest every bit of food in the stomach in just the same way that the stomach itself would, were it well. They retain all the essential elements of the stomach and other digestive fluids of the stomach contain and actually act just the same and do just the same work as the natural fluids would do, were the stomach well and sound. They, therefore, preserve the stomach, just as one workman relieves another and permit it to rest and recuperate and regain its normal health and strength.

This "vacation" idea was suggested by the letter of a prominent lawyer in Chicago. Read what he says: "I was engaged in the most momentous undertaking of my life in bringing about the coalition of certain great interests that meant much to me as well as my clients. It was not the work of a day, but of months. I was working night and day almost, when at a very critical time my stomach went clear back on me. The undue mental strain brought it about and I tried up what would have happened if not for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I had a literally force down and that was a source of misery as I had a sour stomach much of the time. My head ached. I was sluggish and began to lose my interest in carrying out my duties. I looked pretty gloomy for me and I noticed my plight to one of my clients. I had been cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and at once went to a drug store and brought a box up to the office.

"I had not taken a quarter of that box before I found that it would do all the work my stomach ever did and as a rest or vacation was out of the question for me, I determined to give my stomach a vacation. I kept right on taking the tablets and breezed up and went ahead with my work with renewed vigor, as just as much as I ever did and carried out that undertaking in a most satisfactory manner. I feel that I have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to thank for saving me this handsome fee I ever received as well as my reputation and last but not least my stomach."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS FAVORED BY EDUCATORS

Special Committee of Principals Urges That Credit Be Given for Work in Gymnasium

The report of the special committee of principals on high school athletics was considered by a delegation of athletes representing the high schools of the Bay Area at a meeting held this afternoon in Common Assembly hall. Last week the report was presented to Superintendents J. W. McClymonds, P. F. Bunker, W. C. Wood and the various principals, who assembled in the same place. On that occasion there were a number of athletes who were interested in the new movement recommended by the committee of principals who framed the report.

Elective athletics are suggested by the principals for the students, and the plan recommends that all pupils take part in some form of athletics.

CREDIT FOR ATHLETICS.

The athletic work will be prescribed throughout the high school course. It provides a physical director for the men and one for women in each school. That two periods per week in physical training course be required of every pupil unless excused by the property. That four full years of work in this branch of credit be given toward graduation. That the inclusion of the credit in physical training, a minimum of 15 full credits be required for graduation.

The committee believed the present organization of high school athletics to be radically defective in that it induces only a small proportion of the pupils to participate and frequently overstrains those who take part, have striven on the one hand to present a plan that will bring every student into an active participation in the high school athletics and on the other, one that will not present the same incentive to overtraining that exists under present conditions.

REPORT IN PART.

The following is in part a report of the committee:

We believe it possible to so encourage and direct athletics in the high school as to give it real educational value in addition to fulfilling its primary function in the physical development of our students. Your committee has kept in mind this double function of athletics, and has endeavored to formulate a plan that will insure to those physically able and at the same time that training in social activity, self-control, discipline and frequently overstrains those who take part, have striven on the one hand to present a plan that will bring every student into an active participation in the high school athletics and on the other, one that will not present the same incentive to overtraining that exists under present conditions.

WORK BEGINS ON PENINSULAR LINE

Southern Pacific to Electrify Route From Sixteenth St. to the Mole.

Work has been commenced on the Southern Pacific's so-called "Peninsular" line, which will connect the Sixteenth street depot with the Alameda mole. Men and teams have been put to work and Franklin street, north of Fourteenth, is being plowed up in preparation for the laying of tracks to Twentieth street. It is the intention of the company to electrify its present line from the Alameda mole, which is now known as the narrow gauge and runs from the mole to Fourteenth and Franklin streets. The new extension will form a loop connecting the Alameda and Oakland moles.

The work of track laying on the new line will be begun as soon as the various streets are prepared for the work. The new tracks will extend north on Franklin street to Twentieth, along Twentieth westerly to Brush, thence to Eighteenth street, and on down to the bay. Another track will extend on Franklin street to Twenty-second to Broadway, to Twenty-first and along the latter thoroughfare until it joins the other track near Market street.

New York Watches Battle Against Theodore Roosevelt

SAYS JOHNSON PARTY PERFDY IS CHARGED TO HIRAM JOHNSON AND THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

Republican Candidates Are Being Knifed by the Republican Managers, Says John W. Rutherford, Who Declares the Issue Is Roosevelt Versus Taft

Lissner Makes Predictions On His Return From Los Angeles.
30,000 PLURALITY IS CLAIMED BY CHAIRMAN
Dwyer Declares Republicans Will Have Lead In San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—That Hiram W. Johnson will sweep southern California and come north to the Tehachapi with a plurality of 30,000 is the opinion of Meyer Lissner, chairman of the Republican state central committee, who returned from Los Angeles yesterday.

Lissner says: "I never attended a finer political meeting in my life than that in Los Angeles last Saturday. The largest available hall in the city was filled to overflowing by 7:30 o'clock, so that no more were permitted to enter by the police."

MANY TURNED AWAY.
"I wouldn't venture to say how many were turned away after that, but certainly enough to have filled the hall again. At least 500 remained outside till the meeting was over and insisted on Mr. Johnson's addressing them before they would allow him to go away. There can be no question that Johnson has completely won the hearts of the people of the southland. Everywhere he went below the Tehachapi the same thing occurred—immense overflow meetings and intense enthusiasm."

Dwyer Predicts.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—J. J. Dwyer of San Francisco, formerly a member of the Democratic national committee, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday prepared to take the stump for Hiram Johnson. Dwyer says that he believes Johnson will lead Hill in San Francisco by from 7500 to 10,000 votes. Discussing the political situation, he said:

"The Democratic claim that San Francisco will go for Hill by 10,000 to 12,000 plurality over Johnson was not based on any canvass of the city, but is merely another case of the wish being father to the thought. As a matter of fact, from a lifelong residence in San Francisco and from a rather intimate acquaintance with its political complexion from much participation in the detail work of political organizations there with which I have been affiliated, I say that Hill will not carry San Francisco at all. The trend now is strongly toward Johnson, and I have not the slightest hesitation in predicting that Johnson's plurality in San Francisco will run up to between 7500 and 10,000. A big change has been going on since the primary election and the movement of all the hesitating, doubtful and independent voters is unmistakably toward Johnson."

TIRED OF CORPORATIONS.
"The people are tired of corporate domination and the manipulation of party nominations and public officials by the attorneys and the money trusts of the Southern Pacific and its allied interests. The direct primary gave them their opportunity to throw off this yoke, and the impressive vote that Hiram Johnson received at the primary completely upset their calculations. Johnson is a sure winner."

REDDING FORGER CONFESSES CRIME
REDDING, Nov. 2.—A man arrested in Dunsmuir September 19th, under the name of J. O. Boyd for passing a forged check for $50 in Redding on the same day pleaded guilty to a forgery charge in the Superior Court yesterday. When he was arraigned he said his true name was Albert Fairfield. Yesterday he said his right name was Albert La. Fluiter. The prisoner will be sentenced Friday. A Berkeley policeman who was here a month ago recognized La Fluiter as a man who was wanted in Alameda county for passing forged checks signed J. O. Boyd. The real J. O. Boyd is a Berkeley representative in Sacramento. He lost his check book and the finder made good use of them. La Fluiter is said to have been discharged dishonorably from the navy at "Albino."

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I have read with more interest than enlightenment Mr. Hiram W. Johnson's nephew's reply to my puzzled inquiries. He need not have declared his relationship. He shows that he and Hiram Johnson are of the same blood. They both mistake abuse for argument and vituperation for reason.

He tells us that the principles of Republican representative government under which we have lived and prospered for more than one hundred years shall be abandoned for pure democracy because Australia and Oklahoma and Oregon and Switzerland have successfully proved the latter.

Scores Oklahoma's Constitution
I answer, first, that they have not; second, that the free people of the United States need not turn for wisdom and light to the English penal colony of Australia; that Oklahoma's constitutional experiments were and are the laughing stock of constitutional students; that Oregon is groaning over her folly, and that so far as Switzerland goes, a method of government for a few little cantons not as large as Alameda county is wholly unsuited for a nation of one hundred millions of people.

Urges Government Steamship Line
A government steamship line is justified because it will break up a monopoly. A monopoly is an accursed thing. Why, then, as I asked before, does not the government manufacture sugar to break up the sugar monopoly and steel to break up the steel trust, and gas and shoes, and so down the line? And if this be not socialism, what is it? Upon many of the topics upon which I touched, as on the difference in cost as determining tariff schedules, Mr. Johnson declares that Senator Stetson, or Colonel Roosevelt, or some equally distinguished personage, has said so and so. With him that seems to settle the matter. I differ from him essentially in that I do my own thinking, and no man's word carries more weight with me on a debatable matter than goes with the reasons which support that word. Mr. Roosevelt, for example, has declared that the direct primary is "the hope of the demagogue and political millionaire." I can't believe this is true. Does Mr. Johnson?

Never Mentioned the President
He thinks the Republican platform sufficiently commendatory of President Taft. Does he not know the fact to be that Mr. Hiram Johnson before the primary election never referred to President Taft except in sneering words of contempt.

M'CARTHY URGES FAIR AMENDMENT
San Francisco's Mayor Talks On Importance of Senate Measure.

"The Great Importance of the Panama-Pacific Exposition to California" was the subject of an address delivered last night by Mayor P. M. McCarthy of San Francisco, president of the State Building Trades Council, before a large meeting held under the auspices of the Building Trades Council of Alameda county at the county auditorium, at which H. J. Barker, president of the council, presided.

In his address Mayor McCarthy laid particular stress upon the importance of the Panama-Pacific constitutional amendment No. 32 and assembly constitutional amendment No. 33 to assist San Francisco in obtaining the big fair in 1915, as the passing of these measures will be a powerful argument for California.

and since the framing of the Republican platform has never publicly mentioned his name? As to the citrus, dried fruits and canned goods schedule, he seems to admit that the tariff rates are to be decreased, but thinks it all right because the railroads exact so much for freight. Does he think this answer will satisfy the farmer whose fruit will rot on the trees, and the men whose industries will be destroyed by this same downward revision? And if we are to have free lumber so as to have cheaper lumber, why not free everything for the same reason, and why the need of any differential between home and foreign cost?

He resents the statement that Johnson was a Bryanite and Wallace is a Prohibitionist. I make answer that Johnson voted for Bryan and will not deny it. I make answer that Wallace is a Prohibitionist who only a year ago presided at a convention in Los Angeles calling for division of this State, and will not deny it.

Scores Johnson's Republicanism
I say that Mr. Johnson's support of the whole Republican ticket is a pretense and a sham. I say, and everybody knows, that if he sincerely advocated the election of Justice Melvin when he speaks for a "non-partisan" judiciary he would not stop there and leave the implication and invitation to vote for other than the Republican candidates, but he would be at pains to go further and say: "A non-partisan judiciary means the election of the best judicial candidates on any ticket. This year the best are the Republican candidates." Does he say it? Not one word of it.

I charge that the Lincoln-Roosevelt League papers while advocating Mr. Johnson are endeavoring to defeat other Republican candidates whose nominations came from as high a source as his—the People. And I mention as instances Justice Melvin, Judge Lennon, Frank C. Jordan and Julius Kahn.

Alleged Use of Funds
I charge, moreover, that funds gathered in from Republicans for the support of the whole ticket are paid over by Mr. Lissner to such papers as the Oakland Enquirer, San Francisco Bulletin, Los Angeles Express and Fresno Republican, who are endeavoring to defeat Republican nominees. And I say this is party perfidy on the part of the managers of the Republican campaign. What does Mr. Johnson think of it?

I say, moreover, that there is in all this a studied design to insult and affront President Taft and to defy Mr. Roosevelt. That the paramount issue in this campaign is Roosevelt vs. Taft. That it will not be eliminated here any more than in New York, and that the result here will be as in New York, a repudiation of Roosevelt's New Nationalism, of women suffrage, of prohibition, of socialism and of all the other half-baked and undigested fads and isms with which the present managers of the Republican party would afflict and curse our beloved State.

THOMSON'S "GLOVE-FITTING" CORSETS

ROOSEVELT DENIES PARTY RAISED LIVING COST

Cast's All Responsibility for the Conditions From Republicans.

DECLARES STIMSON MENACE TO TRUSTS

Says Plain People Have Never Been Behind Attacks On Him.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 2.—The Republican party is not responsible for the high cost of living, Theodore Roosevelt asserted in a campaign speech here last night. The causes of high prices in the main, he said, were international. Colonel Roosevelt declared that in some instances trusts had forced up prices and pointed to the record of Henry L. Stimson, Republican candidate for governor, as a prosecutor of corporations which had violated the law as proof that if elected he would do all the governor of the state could do to prevent artificial inflation of values.

Colonel Roosevelt's declaration on this subject was made first at Niagara Falls and then at Buffalo at the close of his last speaking tour in the present state campaign.

SPEAKS TWICE.
The colonel spoke twice here last night amid much enthusiasm and then started for New York, where he is to speak on Tuesday three hours after his arrival there in the morning.

In his speech here last night Colonel Roosevelt said, in part: "Fourteen years ago I was in Buffalo spending in the campaign for McKinley against Bryan, and at that time our opponents held the Republicans responsible because prices were too low. You remember that Bryan's great complaint was that we never could get wheat up to the dollar limit. Now, fourteen years after, the complaint is that prices are too high. Real suffering has unquestionably been caused by the fact that prices have gone up, but the cost of living has increased."

NOT A DEMAGOGUE.
"A demagogue in Harry Stimson's place would have promised that impossible results would follow his success, and that if he were elected he would play the demagogue part, for they say that we are to blame for high prices, and that if they are put in power prices will be made low. They know that what they promise they cannot perform."

Colonel Roosevelt pointed out the other night there has been a world-wide movement toward higher prices in the last few years—a movement due to various causes, some of which undoubtedly will be changed in time."

Colonel Roosevelt spoke of Stimson's prosecution of the trusts while United States district attorney in New York, and said as a result "every big financial corporation of the type that we speak of as a trust is now doing all it can to back up Mr. Dix and to oppose Mr. Stimson."

MENACE TO TRUSTS.

"If Harry Stimson were not a menace to the big trusts we would not find every big trust-controlled newspaper of New York city against him. If Mr. Dix was not wanted in office by the great corporations you would not find them supporting Mr. Dix as eagerly as they are in this campaign."

"It was not until I became President that the first really serious effort was made to enforce the anti-trust law. And while, as was perfectly inevitable in the beginning of a crusade of that kind, we sometimes failed, and while it was physically impossible for us to take up more than a small fraction of the cases that we would have to take up, yet we did accomplish a great deal."

"Who have been the people who attacked me most violently? The plain people or the men who represent the trusts? It is the representatives of great corporations, their representatives in the press, their representatives in public life, their representatives in private life, the big corporation lawyers."

RAILROAD PRESIDENT VIOLATES GAME LAWS

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Louis N. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, may have to answer to the charge of violating the state game laws. A German prince, a guest of Hill and his guest recently returned from Hill's deer reserve at Fair Oaks. Reports said the German prince shot a deer. This led to an investigation by the game warden.

Hill admitted his guest shot a deer out of his season and that he himself was keeping a game reserve without having obtained a license.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the club, a copy sent to the Hon. M. C. Sloss and Henry A. Melvin, and to the press of this city and State."

PARIS WORRIED OVER LIVING COST

Annual Expenditure Astounds Even Those Who Expected Big Things.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—What Paris spends annually for its wharves and the quantities of its chief articles of diet have been calculated by statisticians of the French capital, and the figures have excited attention because of anxiety felt in Paris over the increased cost of living, according to a circular report received here.

Not including enormous sums paid out for bread and wine, it may be affirmed without exaggeration that Paris consumed in a year (1909) is representing a total cost of $49,153,000.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless. The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity. Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John C. Moldan, 2115 Second St., North Minneapolis, Minn.

CENTER FIGHT ON COLONEL IN EAST

New York Sun Sees the Utter Defeat of Roosevelt and His Forces.

Declares There Is No Longer Talk of Republicans and Democrats.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Never in the history of politics of this city and state has there been so anomalous a political condition as that which at present exists. There is no longer any talk of Republicanism or Democracy, or stand-patters or revisionists; the whole fight is centering on Roosevelt.

Speaking on the subject the New York Sun says: "That period in the present state campaign when the actual outcome was in doubt has long passed. Wherever even the east experienced among political observers now turn, the indications are the same. From one end of the state to the other, the whole movement is disorganizing, and among Republicans and independents alike it is a movement of revolt against the present party boss and his self-appointed candidates."

VOTERS REALIZE.
"There is not a Republican politician of election district who in the state who does not see and realize what has happened and what is to come. Not one sign is there lacking all of these which to trained observers tell disaster."

CAMPAIGN IN COLLAPSE.
"The simple, transparent fact is that the Republican campaign has collapsed. Lacking the support of the men whose assistance and influence have never before failed it, with every mail swelling the list of desertions and closing the sources of contribution, the Republican party confronts a defeat which is expected by every party worker from top to bottom."

"If the result is no longer in doubt, however, there is still from this very fact an added reason for renewed effort among the opponents of the new nationalist madness and the accumulated hypocrisies, distortions and fallacies, which are now being peddled by Theodore Roosevelt."

BUT ONE ISSUE.
"There is no issue but Theodore Roosevelt. There is no Republican candidate; no Republican campaign deserving or requiring the slightest consideration, save that which he has conducted, not for Henry L. Stimson, not for the improvement of public life in this state or in his party, but to enable him to build upon the basis of control of the Republican machinery in this state a Presidential nomination in 1912 and a renewal of his domination of the Republican party of the nation."

"The certainty of the defeat of Theodore Roosevelt is already apparent; it would be singularly unfortunate if any satisfaction over this certainty should contribute to the size of the party by which the Republicans of this state repudiate decisively and definitely the domination of Theodore Roosevelt."

TORPEDO FLOTILLA SAILS FOR NORTH

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 2.—Accompanied by the navy officer Justin the Pacific torpedo flotilla, comprising eleven torpedo boats and destroyers, sailed from San Diego this morning at 9 o'clock for Mare Island Navy Yard, where they will be docked and repaired.

The fleet will be in San Francisco bay for some time, returning to Southern California waters some time about the first of the year. The submarines will remain in the harbor. Tomorrow the cruiser fleet is expected to arrive off the harbor.

SPILLS SARDINES AND WIFE DESERTS HIM
Frank Silva, of 1213 High street, Alameda, accidentally spilled sardines on an immaculate white tablecloth while he was getting the can that contained them, and it cost him his wife. Mrs. Silva gave him a terrible "howling" for his carelessness and then packed her personal effects and left the house. Silva has not seen her since, and last evening Superior Judge Waste granted him an interlocutory decree of divorce on the ground of desertion.

Political Campaign in South of State Comes to End

'OUR STRUGGLE IS POLITICAL,' SAYS JOHNSON TO STOCKMEN

DECLARES HE WILL OUST INTERESTS

Has No Time for Buncombe or Claptrap, He Says, at Santa Maria.

Big Crowd Cheers Republican Leader When He Expounds Principles.

SANTA MARIA, Nov. 2.—Hiram Johnson spoke to 800 persons in Richard A. Hall last night. The Republican leader was accompanied into this land of stock ranges and fields by R. Cameron Rogers, Republican state committeeman and county senator, L. H. Rogers, who boarded the train at Santa Barbara.

At 8 o'clock, upon the arrival of the party, the crowd gathered in front of the hall and listened to Johnson's expounding of his principles. Johnson, who was wearing a dark suit and a white shirt, was speaking with a clear, strong voice. He was surrounded by a large crowd of people, many of whom were holding up their hands in approval.

Before the meeting a band concert was given in front of the Hotel. Johnson spent part of the evening in shaking hands with citizens of Santa Maria on the street corner. Bona's were exploded and fireworks discharged. The platform of the hall was lit up with a score of large American flags and hung with portraits of Taft and Roosevelt. Johnson said tonight:

DOWN'S INTERESTS.

"We are going to wage this fight until every interest that is inimical to free government, every influence which has debauched and polluted it in the past has been driven out. We are not making any compromise upon honest vested enterprises. Our struggle is political.

"I am not going to waste any time telling you I want to see the wheels of industry go round. I am not going to unfurl my starchy banner and say, 'It above you.' I am not going to hang the rainbow of promise about your heads. If you want to hear that sort of thing take it for granted that it is all said.

"I shall not indulge in any such political claptrap or buncombe. I have not time for it. I have serious work to do in the state of California and I have greater things to talk about than to wish for you what every man in the state wishes—most of all political candidates.

REVOLT IN STATE.

"There is a revolt in every state. This is an impending political revolution. For the first time California is on the political map. This year for the first time in the history of the state our primary election has an effect upon elections in the East.

"Today the Republican party in California is a great free entity in the very forefront of the great fighting Republican states of the Union. No longer are we deliverable in this state by one, many or by any one set of men. We are in the front of the great movement that is destined to make the government responsive to the people and the people alone."

PAYING PENALTY.

"I am paying the penalty for daring to go against the cubs of the interests. Who is it, though, that is paying for all this abuse? Who is it that is paying the money to have it done? In whose interest is it being done? These are the questions that the voters of California must determine. Is it a great issue of this great campaign? In you, as a free people, believing in the principles of good government and decent citizenship, want your governor the man behind whom is allied every evil, vicious, malevolent and malicious influence that has debauched our government, or do you want a man who has made his fight upon a single dominant issue for eight months without swerving one jot from the line and against whom all these evil influences are now arrayed?

"When you find every interest adverse to the people fighting upon the one side, do you not realize that your interests are bound up in the success of the other side? These are the questions you and all the voters of California must answer. This is the issue which must be determined on Tuesday next when you go to the polls. Republican defeat this year would not mean Democratic success, but victory for the special interests and death to the great movement."

'Message of Victory' Flashed by Johnson

To the People of California:

In this, the closing hour of the campaign, I have only words of good cheer for those who have fought so faithfully and earnestly for a free State and a government of equal opportunity. To the people who for forty years have struggled against a condition of political bondage under the domination of a corrupt political bureau I give the message of victory well and fairly won. It only remains to count the votes and is but a question of half a hundred thousand or a whole hundred thousand under which the malign forces that have sought to retain their hold upon the State government shall be buried.

Ours has been the people's battle and the response that has met our efforts has fully sustained that supreme confidence in the people that has been the basis of this campaign. Our opponents have, by their utterances and the means they have employed, made the alignment in this struggle so plain that the situation is fully understood from one end of the State to the other. There is complete realization that the one hope of eliminating the special interests from the government of the Commonwealth lies in the success of the movement that has accomplished this work in the Republican party. Every corrupt influence, every foe to civic decency, every reactionary interest, has been enlisted in the effort to defeat the purpose of the campaign that began eight months ago. That is as it should be. On the one side have been the men who have plundered the people, seeking to retain the power to continue their plunder. On the other side have been the people seeking their political freedom.

Every form of calumny, every possible means of vilification, every degree of mendacity has been resorted to by those seeking to divert the people from the plain issue before them. This campaign of calumny, vilification and mendacity with which the closing days of the canvass have been filled, has been fully understood and has reacted upon the heads of those responsible for its introduction.

At no time have I sought votes upon my personality or upon any assumed service in the past. I have pledged my efforts to drive out of the State government the influence of the railroad, and that pledge I will keep. That was our purpose at the beginning of the primary campaign, and that is our purpose at the close of the electoral canvass. At no time have I permitted any doubt upon that point; at no time have I allowed any lure of office to diminish the force of that crusade.

Yours was the fight that you intrusted to my hands by your votes at the primary election, and it was with a solemn sense of duty and a full appreciation of the grave responsibility that I accepted the trust. I have kept the faith thus far. I will continue to keep the faith, and I will make this government after January next a government of yourselves and a government of all the people of California.—Hiram W. Johnson.

WEST FOR TAFT, AVERS WILSON

Secretary of Agriculture Sees Victory for Republican Party.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—President Taft's interest in the Republican state campaign was shown yesterday by the presence in New York of James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, and Charles D. Norton, secretary of the Interior. Wilson left yesterday afternoon to deliver three or four campaign speeches up the state.

Secretary Wilson said he did not know much about the local state issues, but he said: "I take it for granted that Roosevelt will carry things as usual."

"If the House of Representatives is going to be Democratic," said the secretary, "you people in the East will make it so. The West won't do it. They've had their fight. Take Kansas, for example. It will send a full Republican delegation to Congress. It is the same in Iowa."

"I think the Republican candidate in 1912 will be Taft," said Wilson. "He is strong in the West, and growing in strength, and it is the custom of the Republicans to give a man two terms."

so well begun, to free the government of California."

EXPOSES MOTIVES.

The campaign now on is of just the kind which Johnson says he himself predicted two weeks ago.

Johnson's references last night to the fight against him brought out storms of applause. He addressed the greatest political meeting in the history of this city, and the audience of more than 800 persons which heard him responded to his appeal for good government with tremendous enthusiasm.

Four miles around from every portion of the Santa Maria valley farmers drove into the city to hear the Republican standard bearer, and before the meeting began the streets were thronged. The Santa Maria band met Johnson at the hotel prior to the meeting and led the parade which escorted him to the opera house. The building was packed, while scores were unable to get in, were gathered about the doors.

CROWD CHEERS.

Johnson was cheered when he entered the building, cheered when he arose to speak, interrupted again and again with cheers and given a great ovation at the close of his address. On every hand he was assured of the greatest majority ever given a candidate for office in this locality and in all Santa Barbara county. State Senator L. H. Rosenberg declared that the normal Republican majority of about 700 in the county would be exceeded this year by at least 300.

Johnson left Santa Maria immediately after the meeting on the 9:30 o'clock train for San Francisco. He will go to Sacramento early today for the meeting there tonight, which will be the last of the campaign outside of San Francisco.

KAHN IS GIVEN GREAT OVATION

Congressman Cheered for the Support He Is Giving Exposition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Julius Kahn was given an enthusiastic reception in Golden Gate Hall on Saturday night by a large audience which had gathered to hear the candidates of the Republican party.

There were many speakers, and before Kahn was called upon by Chairman A. B. Castle signs of impatience had been manifest, but every allusion to the candidate for Congress from the Fourth district or to his championship of the cause of San Francisco for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition was greeted with applause, and when Kahn arose to speak the applause of the meeting the big hall rang with cheers.

SAYS PARTY IS SOLID.

Declaring that when the votes were counted on Tuesday night next the majority for all the Republican candidates would cause surprise to the other side by the solidarity of the Republican party in California, Kahn outlined the principles of protection for California products, for which he stood. It was his allusion to the cause of San Francisco in securing the Panama-Pacific International Exposition for this city, however, that called forth the greatest outburst of enthusiasm.

Kahn said that this issue, which had become a dominant one in his re-election, had not been mentioned by him in his campaign until it was raised by his opponents, and that since he had been speaking the truth with freedom. That his hearers were convinced of the wisdom of sending the man who introduced the Exposition Bill in Congress back to Washington to continue his leadership in San Francisco's fight was amply manifested by the response which every allusion to the Exposition brought forth in applause.

NIECE OF T. C. PLATT TO WED BALL PLAYER

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 2.—The announcement of the engagement of Miss Edith Wolfe, niece of the late United States Senator Thomas C. Platt of New York, to Ben Hunt, the big "southpaw" who played with the Sacramento Senators until August of this season and then went East to join the Boston Americans, was made yesterday.

Miss Wolfe became an admirer of Hunt through constant attendance at the ball games here. She is a former Vassar girl and played the role of Jack O'Leary in the original "Land of Nod" company in Chicago. She is a great-granddaughter of General Harrison.

BELL TO SPEAK AT BIG RALLY

The Democrats Expect Great Gathering in City of San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The Democrats expect that their meeting in Dreamland rink tonight will be a very large gathering. They have been making preparations for it for some weeks, and have sent personal invitations to thousands of Democrats outside of San Francisco to attend. There will be no other Democratic meeting here this evening to keep any one away, and Dreamland is the only place at which Theodore A. Bell is to speak tonight. He had been announced that he would make an address at San Mateo at 7:30 o'clock, and would appear at Dreamland at 9 o'clock, but San Mateo is now reserved from his last. A chorus of 200 or so will sing Democratic campaign songs at Dreamland.

Bell is to speak again at Dreamland rink on Friday night at a meeting for which arrangements are being made by the Independent Republican Club, and before going there he will be heard at a Democratic meeting in the mission. The place for the mission meeting has not been announced yet by the Democratic county committee.

J. O. Davis of Hollister, who was chairman of the Democratic State convention, will take the place of John W. Mitchell of Los Angeles, who cannot come, and will speak Thursday night at the Democratic district meetings at Theater hall, 32 Leveleville street, and at Macomber hall, Twenty-fourth and Potrero avenue.

COUNTY G. O. P. TO MEET TONIGHT

Murphy's Hall, 414 Eleventh Street, to Be the Scene of Gathering.

Tonight's Republican smoker and rally that promises to be one of the largest held during the present campaign, will be the first of the last three meetings to be held in this county. Murphy's hall, 414 Eleventh street, has been secured for the occasion and preparations have been made for a big crowd.

The last gathering will be held Thursday evening at Alcatraz hall, Seventh and Potrero streets, and Niles will be the scene of Friday's meeting.

PORTUGUESE SOCIETIES PLAN ANNUAL BALL

Plans have been formulated for the annual joint ball to be given by Councils No. 73, S. P. R. S. I. and L. O. 75, L. D. F. S., next Saturday evening in Souza's hall, Molero, where the representatives of the Portuguese societies of the bay cities will converge to enjoy the hospitality of those councils.

The committees in charge of the arrangements are: Mrs. Leonora Lewis, president; Antonio Souza, secretary; Maria Barabois, treasurer; J. R. Melo and Mrs. Augustus, directors; and Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Thomas, L. B. Buellos, Mrs. Maria Neves, Miss Rosa G. Garcia and Anna Melo. Floor manager, Frank Mathews; assistant floor managers, Mrs. Pearson, Miss Jose Fraga, J. X. Jassaglia and Antonio Souza.

RACE HORSE IN STALL PROVES WOOLEN STEED

An improvised race horse, made up of a carpenter's wooden horse, with an imitation head and tail and astened to the stall with a halter, was all that William Fuller, a process server employed in a local clothing agency, found when he went to Emeryville yesterday to sell the eight-year-old race horse, Transmox, the property of C. F. Frye. When Fuller appeared at the Frye stables a jockey took him to another part of the grounds in search of the animal and when he returned he stated that he had been made and the real race horse could not be found.

ASKS EXAMPLE OF JOHNSON'S BOASTED CONSTRUCTIVE POLICY

BELL SAYS HIS OPPONENT IS BOUND

"Lissner Will Not Let Him Pledge Non-Partisan Appointments."

Coalinga Tenders Democrats a Big Welcome; Hundreds in Audience.

COALINGA, Nov. 2.—The roar of anvils, sounding far out across the desert welcomed the Bell party of 20 automobiles to Coalinga last night. The coming was heralded, not alone by the detonations of giant powder and fireworks, but a blaze of red fire which lighted the country for miles around.

A procession of 12 automobiles went from here to meet the candidates at Leona, 25 miles away, and take them from the hospitable hands of the citizens of the neighboring city of Hanford, where one of the biggest midday meetings in the history of that city was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Hanford opera house into which 1000 persons crowded and made every standing room at a premium.

SPELLACY WINS OIL MEN.

One particular fact that stands out pre-eminently as a reason for the popularity of the Democratic candidates, both here and at Hanford, is the personality of Tim Spellacy, who as a pioneer oil man is known and universally liked from the Atlantic to the Pacific, where oil men congregate. His personality following here on account of his lifelong leadership at the oil game is wonderful and is proving a tower of strength in this particular locality. It is having its weight in seconding the general popularity of Bell throughout the State. Spellacy has business interests at Hanford, the county seat of Kings county, and here at Coalinga he is first, last and all the time an oil man.

As he has said in many of his speeches he was born in the shadow of the first great oil well in Pennsylvania. He afterward bore the first oil well in Indiana and his advent in the oil field of California was the logical sequence to his career.

HAS KNOWN HARD DRUGGERY.

He has done the hard drudgery of the work through all its phases and as an operator has never forgotten the years he spent when he was on the weary side of the industry.

His name has thus become a sort of a standard by which men in this section measure their ethical ideas. It was not unusual therefore that

Would Have G. O. P. Leader Tell More

"Can any man show me one constructive policy which Johnson has proclaimed? Can any man show me where he promises any one definite thing, other than to 'kick' the railroad out of the politics of the State?"

"He has announced frequently that he will 'kick' it out. If he means by that he will drive out not only that, but every other lobbyist and boss who has debased and corrupted our State government, I am with him heart and soul. He cannot drive them too far. But what else does he promise? Does he pledge himself to one single remedial or practical measure? Does he promise to do anything to lift from the people of the State the burden of excessive taxation?"

"Again, has Johnson promised to do anything to take the State institutions out of politics? I am making that promise. You cannot have that just, economical administration which you demand, and which you have a right to demand, unless the appointments to offices in these State institutions are made from a non-partisan standpoint. A man has no right to be given a position of trust merely because he is a Democrat or Republican. I pledge myself to make these appointments in a non-partisan way, but what of Mr. Johnson?"

"The truth of this is that Meyer Lissner will not allow him to make such a pledge, even if he be so disposed. Lissner is shrewd enough to see that it is only by using these institutions in the giving of patronage that he will be able to perpetuate his faction in the Republican party."—Theodore Bell.

Spellacy should insist upon holding a caucus to elect his party to the town, although having his fixed abode in Los Angeles. And he made the same plea among his friends that Bell made for Spellacy in his home county of Kings and other sections when his own personal acquaintanceship was large and carried weight.

EULOGY BY CHARLES KING.

The meeting was called to order by Charles King, chairman of the county central committee, who introduced Superior Judge John Covert. He then introduced the candidates and said:

"It is our pleasure to have with us today the leaders of the Democratic party in the State of California. I need not eulogize either of them in this community. Our nominee for governor, Theodore A. Bell, needs no introduction to any California audience. For years he has been prominent in party councils and has done more than any one man to maintain the honor and integrity of the party in this state."

"It was his work four years ago that caused the conscience of the people, the effects of which presage an overwhelming victory for the Democratic ticket a week from today."

VOICES IMPROVES.

Bell, after a two days' rest, is much improved in voice. He arrived at Fresno from San Francisco about midnight and was met by a large number of personal friends who held an impromptu reception until nearly morning and then for Bell to take morning train for Hanford. At Goshen Junction he met Tim Spellacy, who had come up from Los Angeles, and from that point they journeyed together to Hanford, where they arrived at 11 o'clock. For two

EULOGIZE MELVIN AND HIS CAREER

Speaker Points Out Merits of Justice; Lennon Is Praised.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The small hall known as the Sunset Academy, on H Street, between Eighth and Ninth avenues, was crowded last night by an enthusiastic audience, mostly gathered from the Thirty-ninth Assembly district, to listen to Republican candidates and representatives of candidates.

Congressman E. A. Hayes spoke and dwelt principally upon his record in Congress, embracing his fight for Asiatic exclusion, the leading part he took in the insurgent movement against Speaker Cannon in the Sixty-first Congress and his espousal of San Francisco's cause in her fight for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915.

MELVIN AND LENNON.

William F. Herron spoke in the interest of Justice Henry J. Melvin, candidate for election to the Supreme bench. The speaker confined his remarks to a eulogy of Justice Melvin's legal career, and of the candidate's peculiar fitness for the office to which he aspires. He pointed out certain opposition, which had developed against the candidate, and explained it on the ground that Justice Melvin had refused to be influenced in litigation pending before the court.

The speaker did not fail to mention the name of Justice Lennon, opponent, but advised his listeners to consult any lawyer in the State of California on the respective fitness of the two men.

E. A. Curry spoke in the interest of Judge Thomas J. Lennon, candidate for election to the Appellate bench. His argument was based on the plea that it would be too bad to take Judge Coffey from his present duties, where he had been found to be invaluable as a probate judge for the last twenty years.

CURRY TO PRESIDE AT CAPITAL MEETING

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 2.—Extensive plans have been made for the Johnson-Wallace Republican rally to be held this evening in a big tent that has been erected on the State Capitol grounds. The rally will be preceded by a parade, in which several clubs and associations will participate. Governor W. F. Felt is to be grand marshal. Secretary of State C. F. Curry will preside.

RE-ENFORCEMENT

The New York Herald's forecast of a Democratic victory reminds one of Charles A. Dana's epigram: "The Democrats always win victories in October, but the Republicans usually triumph in November."

—ST. LOUIS TIMES

During the term which is now drawing to a close Sheriff Barnett has "made good" in every sense of the term. He has been alert in the performance of his duties at all times. His office has been administered so faultlessly that grand juries have invariably commented favorably upon it. As a result, Barnett has a stronger claim on the good will, confidence and support of the citizens of Alameda county today than he had four years ago, for, having given entire satisfaction as a public officer and made a host of friends, it is reasonable for him to anticipate public endorsement at the polls. This can be shown by giving him as large a majority at the polls next Tuesday as he received before. He certainly should be re-elected.

FORTY OFF TO TESTIFY IN DYNAMITING CASE

Witnesses Summoned to Los Angeles Leave to Tell What They Know of Accused Men

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Nearly two score of witnesses summoned in San Francisco in connection with the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times left last night for Los Angeles, where a coroner's jury and a special grand jury are trying to fix responsibility for the explosion. All of the witnesses summoned from San Francisco have been interviewed by Chief of Police John Seymour, who expects to leave Thursday to testify before the Los Angeles grand jury. Miss Caroline E. Briggs, laboratory worker at the giant powder works, was among the witnesses who left for Los Angeles last night. Miss Briggs will be asked by the Los Angeles grand jury to tell about the dynamite from which that was used in the explosion. Besides Miss Briggs there are two girls employed as wrappers at the powder works at Giant who are expected to tell the grand jury the details of the shipment of the dynamite. These girls are Miss Daisy Miner and Miss Hannah Paulson. Among the other witnesses is C. A. Baxter, one of the owners of the launch Pastime, who will tell about the launch boat to the suspects known as Bryce and Perry. Mrs. David Caplan, wife of one of the suspects, will also tell her story to the grand jury. Mrs. Caplan claims that she knows nothing about her husband since he disappeared October 9. Caplan was then working as an itinerant peddler. A. E. Yoell, secretary of the Asiatic Exclusion League, and O. A. Twelme, secretary of the State Building Trades Council, are being called before the grand jury to tell about their acquaintance with the suspect known as Smithy, who has many aliases. Other of the witnesses who left last night for Los Angeles were Mrs. William Brown, who lived at the home of Mrs. Belle Lavin while Smithy lodged there; Douglas Burrows, one of the owners of the launch Pastime; J. D. Gresham, of the Asiatic Exclusion League, who will tell about his acquaintance with Smithy; Mrs. D. E. Ingles, whose home was the headquarters of Smithy; Eric B. Morton, who used to meet Smithy; Mrs. John Pesenti, wife of the owner of a house in the hotel where Smithy lived; Ronald Renney, general agent of the giant powder works; John Stanley, master of the launch Pastime.

COLUMBIA PLANT SCENE OF NEW PLAY

Motor Car Factory Dramatized in "Get-Rich-Quick-Wallington" Play.

By J. A. HOULIHAN.

The Columbia Motor Car factory in Hartford has been staged. George M. Cohan in dramatizing George Randolph Chester's story of "Get-Rich-Quick-Wallington" has set the Columbia factory in the story. J. Rufus Wallington is busy promoting the Universal Carpet Tack Company and to frame the deal up in a very large way and show its possibilities he draws investors' attention to a birdseye view of the proposed tack plant.

This view in the stage version is not a fiction but the great Columbia factory in Hartford, Conn., one of the largest motor car plants in the country. When George Cohan started to produce this new play he brought it to Hartford and the scenery was painted there, which accounts for the selection of the Columbia factory. It isn't a wonder that J. Rufus Wallington succeeds in interesting large capital in his tack venture, showing the Columbia factory as an inducement.

STEVENS FOR MODESTO RANCHER.

President A. B. Castigan of the Pacific Motor Car Company reports the delivery of a Stevens-Duryea car to Henry Garrison, a rancher of the Modesto country. The car is of the light touring roadster type and one of the most attractive of the Stevens-Duryea line. Garrison was a prompt buyer and lost no time in touring away with his new purchase.

LEVIES BIG TAX ON AUTOS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Though automobile parts have been assembled and imported into Australia as complete cars, the government of that country in its most recent custom orders, provides that the duty on motor cars shall be levied at the value in the exporting country of each part, according to a consular report issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor.

In addition to setting forth the price of the complete car, the accompanying invoices must include the prices originally charged for the body, fenderboard, mud guards, lamp, etc., when sold separately, and the exporter must file a declaration stating that the prices shown are not less than are charged to purchasers of similar cars and parts in the country of origin.

PATHFINDER EN ROUTE TO COAST.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 2.—A. L. Westgard of New York City, who is preparing a sea-to-sea route for motorists, arrived here last night. He started from New York October 11 and has prepared the data on this part of the trip.

Mr. Westgard, who is a representative of the New York Touring Club, is also a special commissioner of the Government's Department of Public Roads. All of the information he collects on the trip is sent to the government for use in its public road map.

The object of the movement is to establish a route, secure information as to the roads, altitude, direction and conditions, and to secure information as to the hotels and accommodation which can be secured by those wishing to make the overland tour from New York to San Francisco.

Mr. Westgard is making the trip by automobile.

PORTOLA TO BE DECIDED TONIGHT.

It is hoped that final action, once and for all time, will be taken at the meeting this evening of the Portola Racing Association in the rooms of the S. P. Motor Club, Golden Gate and Van Ness Ave., San Francisco.

Oakland has made a hard fight for it. The only obstacle which has stood in the path of the dealers here has been the question of raising the amount needed to promote the race.

Favorable responses are looked for before tonight from the big corporations of the city, who would be direct gainers as a result of a proposition of this kind.

About 25 of the local trade representatives here will attend tonight's gathering in Frisco.

VANDERBILT TAKES AEROPLANE FLIGHT

Orville Wright Soars With the Millionaire, Who Declares It "Great."

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Cornelius Vanderbilt took his first ride in an aeroplane yesterday at Belmont Park. More than a year ago Vanderbilt became interested in aviation and ordered a biplane from the Wright brothers. Because of the great demand on their time the Wrights have not been able to deliver this machine. Today while Orville Wright was fussing around his tests at Belmont Park Vanderbilt suddenly appeared.

"When do I get that machine of mine?" asked the young millionaire good naturedly.

"The good Lord only knows when I will get the time to turn out one for you," said Wright.

"Well," said Vanderbilt, "I have been watching these fellows fly and here I am for a week, and I want to fly myself."

"If you really mean that you want to fly," said Wright, "I'll take you up now."

SAILS FIVE MINUTES.

Without a second's hesitation Vanderbilt said that he would. The two mounted the machine in which they flew from Springfield to St. Louis. By the time the aeroplane, at a height of about fifty feet, had twice circled the course Vanderbilt's confidence in it was complete, so Wright started climbing. He took the guest 300 feet in the air and sailed for about five minutes, over the Belmont Park grounds, and then landed in front of his tent.

"It is simply great," said Vanderbilt to a reporter. "Of course I was in great luck to have an expert like Wright take me up on my first trip. I wish I could handle the machine because I am going to run one myself soon. That is my ambition now."

Arch Hoxsey of the Wright camp took up during the afternoon Robert J. Collier, the publisher; Charles G. Mifflin, Collier's secretary, and Henry Sanderson, president of the Automobile Club of America.

Lest You Forget

Here Are a Few Vital Points to Remember Before You Buy Any Automobile

REMEMBER: THE NAME—E-M-F "30."

REMEMBER: THE PRICE—$1000 f. o. b. Detroit, fully equipped with magneto; five lamps, acetylene generator and tube horn.

REMEMBER: THE GUARANTEE—For one year against breakage "from any cause whatsoever."

REMEMBER: THE RECORD—Over 18,000 E-M-F "30" cars today in hands of owners and every owner boasting—ask them.

REMEMBER: THE SAVING—E-M-F "30" at $1000 saves you $500 as compared with the same size and power and quality others ask $1500 for; and $250 from price of "assembled cars" that list at $1250 and cannot sell for less because of having to pay the extra parts makers' profits.

REMEMBER: That the $250 difference pays $20 per month toward your rent; or it is saving bank interest on $6250, while $600 that you save on a car of equal quality is interest on $12,500 for a year.

REMEMBER: That the difference between price of E-M-F "30" and would-be competing cars at $1250 will pay, twice over, your year's maintenance account—gasoline, oil, tires, repairs and an annual overhauling—twice over, no matter how hard your drive your E-M-F "30."

REMEMBER: That no other thirty or thirty-five horse-power car is made of such excellent materials, and is therefore as light, therefore as economical in operation and maintenance.

REMEMBER: That the E-M-F Company has over $7,000,000 invested in plants and that, not only in every part from the Pig Iron and the Raw Steel bars made in our own factories, but that every pound of steel or brass or other metal that enters into these cars is first made from our own formula; then analyzed to prove its quality, and finally tested to prove its efficiency.

REMEMBER: That cars for which you must pay more are "assembled" product—that while their makers may prate loudly about quality, they don't know what material actually goes into their cars, but must take the word of others who are making the parts for profit and who have no interest in the ultimate user of the car.

AND FINALLY, REMEMBER the record of the E-M-F Company—never repudiated a guarantee or a promise, written, verbal or otherwise. Remember that when we guarantee our cars for a full year we know whereof we speak, for we have made every part and we know absolutely the strength and quality of every piece of steel in it. Remember, that we are the largest automobile manufacturers in the world—that we now have thousands of delighted owners recommending our product and that, in view of our tremendous output, we need a lot more of such friends. Remember that we have always said "a satisfied owner is the best salesman"—and that we have always kept that in mind and seen that every owner was satisfied.

PROFESSOR SHAW RECEIVES HONOR

Appointed Executive Committeeman at Next Dry Farming
 Congress at Pueblo.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 2.—Professor George W. Shaw of the Department of agriculture at the University, who represented the State University at the recent dry farming congress in Spokane, has been appointed a member of the executive committee of the next congress, to be held at Colorado Springs.

President Wheeler of the university Monday received a communication from the secretary of the conference, saying: "It is a pleasure to state we found in Professor G. W. Shaw of your agricultural department, the only delegate at the fifth dry farming congress from California, a most interesting and, I believe, interested delegate. Professor Shaw, after participating actively in all sessions of the congress, was elected an executive committee member for the ensuing year."

Professor Shaw was absent from the University from September 21 to October 10. He attended a number of farmers' institutes in the northern part of California, and spent four days at the Oregon agricultural experiment station. In his report to the dean of the college of agriculture he says that the dry farming congress was organized four years ago with a membership of eighty persons. Today its membership reaches approximately 10,000.

At Spokane there were present delegates from France, Algeria, Chile, Australia, Russia and Mexico, besides over forty delegates from Canada. The fundamental aim of the congress is the reclamation of the arid lands of the world.

While it has so far been called the trans-Missouri congress its theory and teachings have spread to every land and its proceedings have been translated into many languages.

Dr. Shaw says that he finds as a result of his attendance on the meetings that "dry farming" is simply rational scientific culture of the soil under limited rainfall conditions. Dry farming in California grain lands has been unscientific, and our farmers are now reaping the result of their errors, he declares.

No Relief From the "Regular" Physicians

Oakland, Cal., August 6, 1910. To the Public: I wish to certify that I have been cured by Dr. T. Foo Yuen of chronic stomach trouble, so that others suffering from the same case may be enlightened and go to him for treatment. About five years ago, while living in San Francisco I began to have attacks of indigestion which gradually increased until I had to call in a physician, and while there I was treated by two American physicians of good repute, but obtained no relief. The attacks became more frequent and more severe. I felt in my stomach at that time became almost unbearable. Since moving to Oakland, I have treated with six well-known physicians who exhausted their skill with no good results. I suffered much from indigestion, and I cried in agony and wished to die. The doctors said nothing could be done for me except to give me medicine to ease the pain. But my friends could not leave it so. Last September they hurried me to see Dr. Foo, who, within a short time before located at 1912 Broadway, Oakland. After he had examined my pulse he said I had serious stomach trouble. I began to take his special recipe at once, and after taking it for two months I noticed a decided improvement, seldom having any pain, and feeling much encouraged. After the expiration of six months Dr. Foo discharged me as cured. Five months have passed since then and I have felt no return of the trouble, so I feel the cure will be permanent. My weight taken in health was 160 pounds, which had been reduced to 114 pounds when I went to consult Dr. Foo. I now weigh 145 and think in a short time I will go to my normal condition in every respect. I found Dr. Foo a kind and courteous gentleman and would advise those who are suffering to visit him for his wonderful skill, which far surpasses that of any physician that I have ever employed. I believe I owe my life to Dr. Foo Yuen, and my gratitude is unbounded. Respectfully, MRS. NATALIE D. REMWE, 1287 Sixth Ave., East Oakland, Cal.

FRATS DISCUSSED AT HIGH SCHOOL SENATE MEETING

The senators of the Oakland high school, who assembled to discuss "Fraternities" maintained that the frats promoted sociability and were a benefit to the students and the affirmative side, supported by Senators Abbott and Wadsworth, were given the decision by the judges.

The negative side was supported by Harold Simpson and H. C. Blot. The question was: "Resolved, That social organizations, fraternities, sororities and oath bound clubs should not be allowed to exist in preparatory schools; method of eliminating same not to be considered." Ford Elvidge, president of the senate, conducted the debate.

PROPER SPIRIT LACKING.

H. C. Blot opposed the fraternities on the grounds that they have a tendency to promote snobbishness and exclude the poorer students, who do not dress as well as the frats boys. He also asserted that the boys of the frats seemed to clique and that did not show the proper school spirit. Henry Oliphant was of the opinion that more good could be derived from the fraternities than bad and pointed out to the boy senators that the associations of members of the different high school classes, who were members of the frats were beneficial. The critics of the debate complimented the manner in which the senators delivered their brief addresses. Senator Wadsworth was considered the best speaker.

MOCK TRIAL PLANNED.

The members of the senate will hold a mock trial some time in December, when Kenneth Hogan will be the prisoner. The committee arranging the trial is composed of Arthur Thomson, Henry Oliphant, Morris Auger and Ford Elvidge.

'In That Dear Old Yesterday'

(BY CAMPBELL MCGAVIN.)

Did you ever sit and ponder? In a moment when thoughts were swayed And wished the time to live over In that dear old yesterday.

Have you ever had that longing For to romp, to run and play Once more with dear old school-mates In that dear old yesterday?

sauntering home from the school-house With a heart free and gay With a mother's kiss to greet you In that good old fashioned way.

Now sure sometimes in idle fancy You've pictured this old, old scene, If you had altered your course then Oh, how different (things might have been).

But yesterday is like a ship That has been lost at sea Never returns; and all remains is but a memory.

Oakland and Berkeley to Replay Rugby Game

It was decided at the B. C. A. L. meeting that there would not be another Rugby game between the Oakland and Berkeley high schools. This came rather as a surprise as they had a ready upheld Oakland's protest regarding the shortening of the second half of the game.

Berkeley's team is in a bad condition with three men injured, and if the game had to be played, even would have forfeited it to Oakland. Oakland may play Fremont soon, as Fremont has a good team on the field.

BILLIONS OF GERMS ON CONDEMNED FOWLS

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—Application was made to the superior court yesterday by State Food Commissioner Davies for an order to destroy a ton of turkeys and fowls of smelt, salmon, crabs and lobsters, shipped here last May by a California firm to be placed in cold storage and held for the fall trade.

The stuff was seized last week. Analysis showed that the smelt contained 4,500,000 bacteria per gram and the turkeys 180,000,000 per gram. No one will admit ownership of the stuff. Much putrid food was found in other cold storage warehouses.

The Other Side of the Question

Why State Constitutional Amendment No. 1 Should Not Be Passed on Nov. 8th

The law states that every Constitutional Amendment of the State of California should be presented to the voter with a favoring and a negative argument attached to it. THE NEGATIVE ARGUMENT WAS OMITTED IN THE CASE OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 1.

Here are some of the IMPORTANT REASONS ON THE OTHER SIDE—the negative side:

Effect on Economic Conditions

- (1) Abolishes old principle of equal taxation and substitutes fixed rates for certain classes of taxpayers.
- (2) Will throw the tax system of the State into confusion and the courts for a number of years, as many prominent attorneys doubt the validity of the provisions new amendment seeks to enact.
- (3) Inflexibility of fixed rates will result in the growth of an iniquitous system of license taxes to supplement taxes acquired from corporations, as is evidenced by history of every State adopting similar laws.
- (4) According to terms of amendment it would be almost impossible to raise rates on public service corporations, should it be found necessary to do so.
- (5) Inaccuracies in report show that insufficient revenues will be secured to cover expenses of State government and that recourse to former ad valorem tax which amendment seeks to avoid would be necessary.

Effect on our Public Schools

- (1) Takes away from the public schools the amount hitherto allowed by statute for each scholar in attendance therein.
- (2) Repeals the statute setting aside each year 3 cents on each $100 of assessed valuation for the benefit of the State University.
- (3) Makes the public schools and the University of California dependent on the compromises and log-rolling methods that go to make up the General Appropriation Bill in each legislature.

Effect on Financial Conditions

- (1) Owing to prohibitive tax on bank capital stock, surplus and reserves, banks would be tempted, if not forced, to reduce their capital stock, surplus and undivided profits as much as possible to avoid payment of large tax.
- (2) This restriction would lessen supply of cheap money and raise rate of interest.
- (3) As the tax of 1% on the banks is in lieu of all other taxes assessable against banks they will invest in foreign securities for which there is always a market and escape taxation on them in this State. California bonds could then be sold only at a considerable discount.

Effect on Industrial Conditions

- (1) Money makes the wheels go round and means prosperity, more business to the merchant, a greater marketable output to manufacturer and producer and a steadier and more profitable employment to wage earners. Dear money means a stifling of all these activities and negative results. Under the amendment money would be dear.
- (2) The money necessary for the development of our intercommunicating city electrical systems, reclamation and irrigation projects, our farm lands, would not be readily forthcoming.
- (3) Whenever and wherever industry lags, then and there the laboring man suffers, both in steadiness of employment and the compensation therefor.

Every merchant, every manufacturer and every wage earner in the State of California should ponder well before he votes on this momentous question.

STANFORD FOOT BALL MEN ACCUSED OF INTOXICATION

Faculty to Investigate Charge That the Rugby Team Overindulged.

IMBIBED TOO LIBERALLY OF BEER IN NEVADA

Coach Presley Vigorously Denies Members of Team Were in Orgy.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 2.—Serious trouble has broken out between the faculty and the football squad. The campus has been thrown into a whirl of excitement over reports of a widespread investigation into the charge that the men on the team have been allowed an over-indulgence in beer. Coming at this date, ten days before the big game, the news has spread consternation among the enthusiastic collegians.

A hurried meeting of the students' affairs committee has been called for tonight. Prof. A. D. Clark, chairman of the committee, has sent out notices and impressed upon his colleagues the importance of the occasion.

INQUIRY TO BE HELD.

The inquiry, it is stated, has been prompted by evidence gathered by Clark through a number of his special agents among the student body. The accusations have been resented by thearsity athletes, who state that they are without foundation. The charges have been summarized by the students' affairs committee under two heads.

1. That the members of the varsity team imbibed too liberally of beer at the game in Reno, Nev., three weeks ago.

2. That the members of the second squad violated the college rules in the same manner after the game at Santa Clara two weeks ago.

The first offense is said by the faculty man to have been committed in Reno after the game there. The second offense, according to the authorities, took place in San Jose after the Santa Clara game.

SICKNESS CAUSES TROUBLE.

The attention of Professor Clark and his committee was first called to the matter through representations who are specially delegated to watch over the students. The matter was under consideration when Lyman King, a member of the second team, was taken ill. Professor Clark connected the boy's sickness with the reports that had been brought to him, and thereupon summoned his committee for official action.

It was charged against the second team, which King belongs, that after the game at Santa Clara the entire squad repaired to San Jose and the proceeded to celebrate gorgeously.

PLAYERS ARE INDIGNANT.

Throughout the team there is general indignation at the charges. It is stated that they are based upon "false reports and will be proved untrue. George Presley, the graduate coach speaking for the players, said that a great mistake had been made.

"There is no truth," said Presley, "in the reports that the boys indulged too freely and went on a drink after the game. It is the custom after each game to give the players one-half pint of beer each. This is part of our rationing system. After the game at Reno, and again after the game at Santa Clara, the boys were given the regular allowance. That was all the drinking there was. There was no over-indulgence and there was no boisterousness. I am at a loss to know how such reports could go out."

Professor Clark declined to discuss the matter. "I must wait until after the investigation," said he, "before I can give out any statement."

BALDWIN'S WIDOW NAMED AS RIVAL

Automobile Dealer's Wife Says Relict of Millionaire Stole Husband's Affections.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Lily Baldwin, widow of the late millionaire, was named as co-respondent in a divorce proceedings brought by Mrs. William Howard against her husband, who she says entertained Mrs. Baldwin lavishly in hotels, lodging houses and beach resorts.

All of this was done at the expense of his wife and child, she asserts, who were left almost destitute. In her action for divorce Mrs. Howard, who is the wife of an automobile dealer, alleges that her husband was in constant telephonic communication with Mrs. Baldwin and that he met her at his places of business in Main street and in Flower street, and that while in her company at night he visited lodging houses, hotels and beaches. She also declares that her husband became so infatuated with Mrs. Baldwin that he nearly deserted his wife and child.

WIFE'S STORY.

The wife continues the story of her alleged wrongs by declaring that her husband went on a trip to Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 30, 1910, and that while absent he visited Chicago, where he was a guest at the Hotel Congress in company with Mrs. Baldwin. She reveals, after that assertion, to September, 1909, when, she declares, her husband went to the Portico celebration in San Francisco, where he was often in the company of Mrs. Baldwin. Following that, the wife avers he visited San Diego in December, 1909, and there "openly and notoriously" consorted with Mrs. Baldwin.

Even before her husband's death Mrs. Baldwin and Howard were intimate, according to Mrs. Howard, who asserts that one day in 1909 she visited at Mrs. Baldwin's residence and saw Howard enter with Mrs. Baldwin. He did not arrive home until 3 o'clock on the next morning, according to Mrs. Howard.

Plucky Woman Aids Policeman Fight Hoodlums

NEW YORK.—While Mrs. Katharine Brady, matron of the Board of Health in Brooklyn, was nearing her home, No. 533 West Fifty-second street, Manhattan, at 5 o'clock last evening she saw Patrolman Edward Collins of the West Forty-seventh street station in a dispute with four members of a gang that had been terrorizing the neighborhood recently. The gangsters were in front of Mrs. Brady's home. When about fifty feet away she saw the lieutenant seize one of the men by the coat collar.

Like a flash the man's companions jumped for Collins, who had made no attempt to draw his club. Taking advantage of this one of the band crept up behind the policeman and snatched the club from his belt. Collins half turned, evidently intending to grab the man and recover the stick, when the rough, struck him a terrific blow on the back of the head with the club. Collins sunk to his knees. His assailants roared and kicked him, where they pounced and kicked Collins, who was vainly trying to draw his revolver, until he was unconscious.

SWINGS CLUB ON THUG'S HEAD. Miss Brady was so shocked that she stopped twenty feet away. Then, like a tigress, she charged the group and before the men realized she was upon them, she wrenched the policeman's club from the hand of the man who had dealt Collins the blow. The next instant the club swung swiftly in a wide circle above her head and before the thugs could step away, Mrs. Brady brought it down on the head of the nearest one, with a howl the gangster ceased kicking the prostrate form of the policeman and fled.

The other three were dismayed at the vigor and swiftness of the woman's attack, but they had no time to get out of range before the club came down again. This was enough. The made no effort to attack Mrs. Brady, but fled after their companions.

Lady With Pink Hair in Suit

PHILADELPHIA.—I don't very often that drama occurs less the attention of the bench, that such drama comes from the pen of John Luther Long and involving "the lady with the pink hair," real name Mrs. Leslie Carter. But judge, lawyers and spectators in common pleas court No. 1 had the opportunity yesterday to witness the trial of the artist when "Kassie" came up for discussion and analysis. A very ordinary law suit was the cause of it all.

The suit is being brought against Mr. Long by David R. Perkins, who has a claim that was a signed to him by Percy Anderson, a London costumer. Mr. Long denies the obligation, and has very much valiantly tried to shift responsibility to the "lady with the pink hair," as he referred to Mrs. Carter yesterday.

It is contended that Anderson had a claim resulting from professional services in supplying jewelry, color plates and costumes for the magnificent setting of the scene. He brought the suit against Mrs. Carter who had awarded the contract to a telephone Mucha, of Paris, after Anderson had done the work and Mrs. Carter went into bankruptcy. The claim was then assigned to Perkins, who is trying to extract the fees from the play's author. The latter is represented by Horace M. Rumsey while Maurice M. Smith is representing the claimant.

ST. LOUIS.—The fame that attaches to being the wife of the "Candy Bandit" is sweet to Mrs. Mable Rhodus, the three months' bride of Leigh Rhodus, self-confessed highwayman and slayer. Mrs. Rhodus proudly affirms that she changes costumes several times a day. In fact each time she visits her husband at the jail, and her face flushes up in mingled pride and embarrassment as passersby and newsmen in the streets of East St. Louis nudge each other and whisper as she goes by, "That's the 'Candy Bandit's' wife."

"I sure am glad I married Leigh, and I ain't going to leave him now, you can bet your hat," she held forth to an admiring audience of gum-chewing individuals. "Them stories they're printing in the papers about me not sticking to Leigh is all lies. I don't care where they take him. I'll be Johnny on the spot."

MET BANDIT AT CREVE COEUR.—Mrs. Rhodus relates the romantic story of her marriage. "I met Leigh the fourth of July at a dance at Creve Coeur Lake," she said. "He told me I'd have to marry him right off, and he bothered me so much that I had to wed him three days later."

"You can take it from me that it's all lies they're telling about him holding them men up for $100. Why, would I be paying for my furniture on the installment plan if that was so? I kinda guessed he was doing something not on the square when he would bring me the money, but he was a waxy old man. 'Well, I'm going to lodge tonight, and I'll be at the 'That's where I thought he was and all the time he was in somebody's dirt. Say, turn this way so these gals 'Big Jim's' bringing down the street won't get the grand view."

Mrs. Rhodus is husky, brown-eyed and rather tall, boasting a much-betrayed pompadour a la Hoxers. She declares she will work in a factory or do domestic work if she goes to Chicago with her husband. "I'll be like my father any old way, 'long as I'm with Leigh."

She is bold, a family trait rather than a peculiar personal characteristic. The hundreds of men and some women, too—who crowd into the East St. Louis holdover to get a glimpse of the "Candy Bandit," are equally voracious for a view of his bride. "Get me home, she's coming through," bawled the turnkey to a crowd of men and women. They gave way obediently, and the young bride back to disclose Mrs. Rhodus, who walked demurely, with waving plumes, through the human alga, while brandishing her neck until she disappeared from sight.

BY WILL D. SIMMONS. It's the taste of grass and chemise brush the shade of some veteran oak. A peck 'neath the red manzanita. When the hills don their golden cloak; the twitter and twang, and flutter, the wisp and the rattle, and sigh, as the wild things patter and putter. When the older mists fill the sky, it's this get me-and some more.

Some more—is the crack of my cabin. It's my pipe and tea, and gin. It's the call of the quail in the morning. Near the spring at the Big Deer Run. Fresh sign of a wounded snipe-boy, and the bark of coyotes at night. The blue jays' loud shriek of joy. Or the slight of some buzzard in flight. It's this get me-and then some.

Then some—is the lake below me. With its fish and brim and duck. My little row on the shady bay. Where my rod and all its luck. The purr of a breeze and a dry wave. The whisper and rattle, and spatter. The boat and the dog that won't behave. Goose call, and the mud hen's clatter. It's the gets me—and the rest.

The rest—is the feeling I love so. When the first fall hills are gone, And leaves me content just to listen. As though I was part of the song. ## $519 in Heart-Balm Is Her Reward

Letters Read in Court Win Verdict.

READING, Pa.—A jury awarded Miss Helen Jones, of Upper Merford township, Lehigh county, $519.16 damages in her suit for breach of promise against Eugene F. Bauer, a farmer, of Herford township, this county.

It was one of the strangest cases ever tried here. Miss Jones, who is young and pretty, does not speak Pennsylvania German, the dialect used by Bauer, and Bauer cannot talk English, yet their courtship lasted five years. "The girl admits she did much of the courting," she said she was of a Quaker family.

It was brought out in the trial that the principal reason for their separation was because they were of a different religious faith. The Rev. Father Charles Bauer, rector of the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, at Baliv, told of alleged overtures made to him by the girl to use his best efforts to promote the love match.

WOULDN'T CHANGE.—Miss Jones declared that Bauer wanted her to become a Catholic, and that she consulted the priest who gave her books of instructions, but afterward Bauer broke the engagement. She admitted that she made him promise to marry her, and that she told him if he refused she would consult her lawyer in Philadelphia.

"Didn't Mr. Bauer ask you to give up your company?" the girl was asked. "He did not, but it is understood in that part of the country that a girl is not supposed to have more than one beau."

LETTERS READ.—Several letters written by Bauer were read to the jury. In one he said: "I don't like you to go with another fellow. Maybe that fellow's name is Yeager." I would not like any girl to

WITNESSES TESTIFY IN THE TIMES EXPLOSION HEARING

MULDOWNEY'S WIFE VANISHES WIFE WOULD COME BACK IS REPORT OF MAN

Jack London's Late Antagonist Has Marital Battle With Spouse.

She Returns to Home and Hubby Tells Her What He Thinks.

The family troubles of Timothy Muldowney, Jack London's strenuous opponent in a barroom brawl in Seventh street, occupied the attention of three members of the Melrose police force from midnight till dawn this morning. Mrs. Muldowney, whom her husband is suing for divorce, attempted to break into her husband's residence at Russell and Charles street in Pittsburg, and was only prevented from carrying her design into effect by Patrolman Lindwood. She had a large Colt's revolver concealed about her person at the time with which she declared she would defend herself, but intimated that she would make the redoubtable Timothy look like a sieve if he interfered with her.

Divorce suit filed.

Later Muldowney sold out, and it was reported that he and Mrs. Muldowney had settled their difficulties. Then appeared a notice in a local paper to the effect that "Mrs. Muldowney having left his bed and board." This would no longer hold himself liable for any debts she might incur, and there was followed by the filing of suit for divorce by Muldowney. Mrs. Muldowney apparently did not relish the turn affairs had taken, and shortly after midnight this morning she decided to resume her place as second in command in the Muldowney household, planning to take the position by storm if she had to break through the trenchments placed across her path by Timothy.

Threatened men.

She said she would kill the men if they attacked her. Patrolman Fife was detailed to investigate the claim of the woman that two men had been following her, and discovered that two men had left the car at Sargent avenue at the same time, but had gone in a different direction. The woman disappeared from the Melrose station about 5:30 this morning.

DR. GRANT'S FATE SOON TO BE IN JURY'S HANDS

Taking of Evidence Concluded Today and Prosecution Rests.

DEFENSE CALLS NO WITNESSES ON STAND

Verdict in the Case May Be Expected Before Nightfall Tomorrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The taking of evidence in the case of Dr. Robert Thompson, alias James Grant, accused of the murder of Eva Swan, was concluded this morning when the prosecution rested their case and the defense announced that they would not put on any witnesses.

Tomorrow the case will be submitted to the jury and a verdict may be expected before nightfall.

At today's session Dr. August J. Lattigan, an expert, testified that Eva Swan had come to her death from blood poisoning following a criminal operation, was cross-examined by Judge Fernal, representing the defendant.

TECHNICAL TESTIMONY.

The evidence was largely of a technical and medical nature and dealt with the methods used by doctors in treating cases where unlawful operations are performed.

Just at noon, when the physician was excused, Assistant District Attorney Brennan announced that the case had been closed.

"That's the case," added Judge Fernal. "We desire to call no witnesses."

Chauffeur Says Spouse Has Disappeared, But Is Very Reticent On Case.

Accuses Women of Knowledge of Her Whereabouts; Mystery in Affair.

The police are a little puzzled over the attitude taken by James B. Simms, a chauffeur employed by a real estate firm at 775 Eleventh street, who after reporting over the telephone that his wife Clara had disappeared is refusing to give out any additional information that might lead to the discovery of the alleged missing woman.

Simms called up the department early this morning and after telling of his wife's alleged disappearance, gave a description of her and directly accused Mrs. Charles W. Miller of 1211 Eleventh street and Sadie Scolls of San Francisco of being aware of her whereabouts.

TOOK AWAY FURNITURE.

In the report Simms made over the telephone to the police, he asserted that his wife had taken their furniture from a warehouse at Twenty-sixth and Union streets and had gone to East Oakland. He described her as 25 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches in height with a dark complexion, black hair and eyes.

He refused to talk of the case when seen this morning on the score of a dislike of publicity. While it was suggested that publicity would aid in the discovery of his wife, he declined to give out any additional information, citing the impression by his attitude that he was not disposed to aid in the search for her.

Attorney Fickert said that the prosecution would be "light." One of the jurors wanted to know if the matter would be submitted to them before tonight, but Judge Dunne replied, in the negative, and the court will occupy the entire afternoon and at least the morning session of tomorrow.

District Attorney Fickert and Attorney Brennan will argue for the prosecution and Fernal, representing the defendant, will argue for the defense.

PLAN TRAP FOR CHURCH THIEF

Continued reports of the operations of the church thief that Sunday stole overcoats and hats from several Oakland churches at morning and evening services, has led to an investigation by the police and it is probable that a special detail of policemen and detectives will be ordered to keep watch next Sunday to forestall a repetition of this wholesale theft of garments.

The man guilty of taking the hats and coats evidently worked with considerable daring and speed, entering vestibule and choir rooms of the churches in broad daylight and taking away a large bundle of clothes. Several reports were made Sunday and Monday.

MANY REPORT.

Among the new complaints received today by those who had believed that their garments had merely been taken by mistake are the following: From First Congregational church, a military overcoat, dark brown; value at $35, property of H. E. Pratt of 2526 Durant avenue, Berkeley. From Eighth Avenue Congregational church, black overcoat, valued at $20, property of William F. Elder of 504 East Twenty-second street. From Methodist church, at Clay and Fourteenth streets, olive green double-breasted overcoat, $25, property of William Wright, Jr., of 10 Taft avenue. From Brooklyn Presbyterian church, gray felt hat, property of Fred Wallace, of 905 Fourth avenue.

'KID' SULLIVAN ORDERED OUT OF TOWN

King of Pickpockets Is Told to Leave San Francisco or Go to Jail.

Bail Exonerated Pending His Going to Other Pastures.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—"Kid" Sullivan, notoriously known over the country as the king of the pickpockets, has decided to shake the dust from off his feet and to depart from San Francisco rather than go to jail on a charge of vagrancy.

After making this announcement, at first in private conference with Chief Seymour, and later in open court, Sullivan's bail was exonerated, and he will leave town immediately.

Today was set for the commencement of his trial and Policeman Redmond had summoned a jury. He was accused of vagrancy and when arrested, after Chief Seymour took office, was told that he must either leave the city or go to jail. He fought against the alternative up until today, when, accompanied by Attorney Tom O'Connor, he visited the chief.

"I have decided to leave San Francisco," he said, "but I want to know how long I've got to stay away and whether, if I'm good and come back and set up in some legitimate business I can return in three months."

"That depends entirely on yourself," replied the chief, who would make no stipulation.

In court Attorney O'Connor announced that as Sullivan had been given alternatives and as the amount of the police summoning the jury he was likely to go to jail, he had decided to decamp. The district attorney acquiesced in the motion for the dismissal of the case and the case was placed on the reserve calendar.

Sullivan leaves immediately. He may only go as far as Oakland, but it is pretty certain that he will not go to Chicago where, it is claimed, the country is too hot for him, but there is a chance that he will lose himself among the throngs in the metropolis of the United States.

Some have suggested that the Kid may take to the tall timber and lead a rural existence for three months and then return to the city of his birth and be good for life.

FORMER BERKELEY PROFESSOR DEAD

William Henry Brewer, Pioneer Lecturer of California, Passes Away.

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—The death of Prof. William Henry Brewer, former lecturer at the University of California, today reported from New Haven, Conn., today Professor Brewer was a member of the Geological Survey as a geologist in California some fifty years ago, and it was his work together with that of Professor H. H. Henshaw, of Yale, that formed the basis of the geology of California in 1864.

He was called to Yale as professor of agriculture and has been there ever since, several years ago he was made Professor Emeritus. His direct connection with the University of California was in the years 1874-75, when he was successively appointed special lecturer in agriculture and lecturer on industrial education. He was among those who at the public exercises in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the College of California, were awarded the degree of doctor of laws, in testimony to their early connection with the intellectual life of the state.

Professor Brewer was unable to be present personally at that time, but he used the following words in conferring the degree of doctor of laws upon Professor Brewer: "Graduate of the Yale Scientific School" in the class of 1852, professor of chemistry in the College of California, 1883-84; since then called to Yale as professor of agriculture and has been there ever since, several years ago he was made Professor Emeritus. His direct connection with the University of California was in the years 1874-75, when he was successively appointed special lecturer in agriculture and lecturer on industrial education. He was among those who at the public exercises in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the College of California, were awarded the degree of doctor of laws, in testimony to their early connection with the intellectual life of the state.

UNION LABOR LEADERS APPEAR BEFORE SPECIAL JURY IN DYNAMITE CASE

Throng of San Franciscans Summoned to Testify Before Los Angeles Inquisitors in Regard to the Blowing Up of The Times Building

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—Prominent San Francisco members and leaders of the labor unions of California appeared before the Los Angeles special grand jury in answer to the summons from that body to tell what they know regarding the movements and plans of certain individuals suspected of guilty knowledge of the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times.

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE.

Other witnesses from the north also were present. The inquisitors today began applying the test of close scrutiny to the chain of evidence which has been worked up by the detectives and attorneys employed on the case, and it is asserted by those having intimate knowledge of the details leads unerringly to the guilty criminals. The witnesses questioned today were supposed to have knowledge of the movements of the hunted trio, Bryce, Schmidt and Caplan.

THOSE PRESENT.

Among those present in the jury room corridor waiting for the call of the inquisitors were Olaf Tveitmo, secretary and treasurer of the State Building Trades Council, Anton Johansen, organizer of the Building Trades Unions; George H. Phillips, manager of the dynamite factory at Giant, Cal., and the owners of the "Lunch Pastime," Douglas Burrows and Howard Baxter, whose vessel, renamed the "Pioneer," is alleged to have been used by the plotters as a transport of the explosive subsequently used to destroy the Times' plant and its men.

EARL ROGERS PRESENT.

Earl Rogers, who directed the work of the detectives on behalf of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association of this city, also was on hand, outside the grand jury room. He came to the courthouse accompanied by Mr. D. H. Ingersoll of San Francisco, friend of Mrs. Belle Lavin, the San Francisco lodging house keeper, who is still held in close confinement in the Los Angeles county jail to tell the grand jury whatever she learned of the alleged conspirator, Bryce, during her five months' association with him in San Francisco.

Mrs. Ingersoll, according to Rogers and Samuel Brown, chief detective of the district attorney's staff will tell the grand jury a story that will connect several important details in the evidence which has been gathered against the trio.

MAY CONNECT FOURTH MAN.

Brown said today that one result of the grand jury's probe might be to connect a fourth man with the actual perpetration of the crime. Who this fourth man was, he declined to state.

Still another witness from San Francisco was Harry Piper, a jockey, who, it is asserted, saw in the launch Pastime the powder wrappings subsequently found in the South San Francisco house with some of the dynamite marked "Bryson." The Piper boy came down from San Francisco with Earl Rogers yesterday morning.

WOMEN JOIN BOOSTERS FOR PANAMA EXPOSITION

Progress and Prosperity Committee Is Greatly Pleased Over Work They Have Already Accomplished

Through the courtesy of Supervisor John Mullins and County Clerk John D. Cook, a voting machine has been placed in the Oakland Chamber of Commerce at Twelfth and Franklin streets, under the supervision of the Chamber of Commerce, to assist in the education of the voters prior to election day on November 8.

In line with the campaign being waged by the Committee on Progress and Prosperity, however, this particular machine is being exhibited by two young ladies, Miss N. Smith and Miss B. Bachrach, who are losing no opportunities to show their love for the cause of the suffrage.

The interest shown by citizens in the progress of the cause is being explained to them by two charming members of the latter sex is a "remarkable proof of the influence of women in politics, and it is reasonable that the Chamber of Commerce as a demonstrating station is enjoying a treble popularity over that of any other in Alameda county.

PLANS PERFECTED.

At a meeting of the Ward Majors presided over yesterday by Division Commander Fred E. Reed of the Oakland territory, the plans for carrying the campaign into the homes of the voters were well advanced. It was expected that over 1000 individuals will have definite territories assigned to them consisting of but two or three blocks to each worker, so that the minimum amount of work will be given to the greatest possible number of men.

A photographic reproduction of the top of the ballot machine, which has been printed in large quantities by the Committee on Progress at Prospect, showing the voter what buttons to press to give the answer to the question, is being called for in large quantities by the various improvement clubs and fraternal organizations throughout the county. It is confidently expected that this method of reaching the voters will do more to bring an active vote in the polls on these two important propositions than any other form of publicity employed by the boosters.

CONCERNING AMENDMENTS.

Some confusion at first arises in the minds of the voters as to what is meant by the amendment voting numbers 11 and 12, and the committee is making every effort to have this point thoroughly explained to the voters. The photograph of the machine, as the machine key numbers, however, and it is not expected that election day will show anything but an overwhelming vote in favor of the amendments.

During the latter part of the week speeches will be made in the theaters and the subject of the amendments will be the subject of the various theatrical managers, who recognize the importance of the amendments for the cause of the suffrage. The speakers will be given the opportunity to bring the issues well before the people.

ALLLENDALE INDOORSEMENT.

At a meeting of the Allendale Improvement Club, held at the Allendale street last night President Sansone of that organization brought before the members of the club a paper containing a favorable action in connection with the amendments. Literature was distributed and the subject of the amendments was discussed among those present. The Allendale Improvement Club is exhibiting much energy in the campaign and will do valuable service to the Committee on Progress and Prosperity by seeing that the voters of that section do not overlook these two amendments.

ALAMEDA POUND TO BE REMOVED SHORTLY

List of Impounded Dogs to Be Kept On the City Hall Register.

COUNCIL WILL ASK FOR LARGER WATER MAINS

Board of Education to Buy Lot for a Big School Gymnasium.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—Mayor Noy has enlisted himself against the present location of the city pound and last night at the meeting of the city council urged that it be removed to an isolated district, which will probably be the marshes of Bay Farm Island. Mayor Noy asserted that the greatest trouble that he has had since he has been chief executive of the city is the public pound. Complaint after complaint has been filed with him, he says, and a few days ago a report came from a woman who lives near the pound that several dead dogs were lying about the place.

FAVORS POUND'S REMOVAL.

"The public pound is not a credit to the city," said the mayor, "and it should be removed to a place where it will be less objectionable. The district in which it is now located is growing rapidly and soon should be taken at once to remove it."

The mayor also urged that a register of the dogs that are impounded be kept at the city hall, so that owners can locate their pets without travelling to the pound.

The council referred the matter to the public utilities committee and Dr. Tom Carpenter, superintendent of the pound. Upon a motion made by Councilman E. J. Probst, the council ordered that the report of the Park and Playground Commission, which contains the history of the parks since their inception, be published in the Alameda Daily Argus, the city official paper.

JANITOR IS APPOINTED.

J. W. Burns was appointed temporary janitor at the city hall, to take the place of E. L. Ward, who is absent on account of illness. Burns' salary commences October 4. He is to receive $2 per day.

The public utilities committee was urged to confer with the Peoples Water Company and urge that larger mains be placed in Grove street between Endland and Central avenues, Bay street, south of San Antonio avenue, and in Taylor avenue. The company notified the council that it would make no further improvements in this city this year, but the committee will urge the necessity of the larger mains.

INVITATION TO CONVENTION.

The council filed the invitation of the State Board of Health to the members to attend its convention to be held at San Diego Nov. 16 to 19. Electricity Commissioner Wynne Meredith, who is now in the northwest, was given another 60 days' leave of absence. The report of the Board of Fire Commissioners on conditions in this city was referred to the police and fire committee, and the police and fire committee.

An ordinance was introduced granting the Board of Education permission to purchase a lot 100x150 feet, adjoining the playground of the Porter school. The playground is to be enlarged. The property is to cost $4500.

The hearing of the protest against the improvement of the south end of Cedar street was set for November 17 at 8 o'clock.

MILK ORDINANCE TABLED.

The proposed ordinance providing for the distribution of milk in this city in single-service packages was laid on the table, Councilman E. J. Probst making the motion.

Upon the recommendation of the city attorney, the claim of the Nevada Manufacturing Company for $300 for construction of the underground water system in Washington Park was rejected. It is claimed that the system is satisfactory. Councilman William Hammond Jr. reported that he is to have a conference with the board of health on the proposed improvement of the south end of High street and that he will report to the council at the next meeting.

National Guard to Be Put Through Heavy Pace on Field and in Armory

Photograph of Company C, Fifth Infantry, N. G. C.; On the Right, Captain O'Toole, Who Is to "Rough It."

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—A new national guardman is appearing since the recent maneuvers at Atascadero under the direction of regular army officers. The multiman of the blue uniform and brass buttons, who was known as a soldier only when he appeared on the armory drill floor or at annual encampments, is to give way to the modern guardman of the khaki uniform and the camp outfit. "Roughing it" is to be the order from now on, following the instruction given by the officers at Atascadero. Strenuous parading and the formal features exemplified in the armory are to be shelved in favor of practical outdoor work, long marches through rough country and overnight camping.

ENTHUSIASM RIFE.

The members of Company C, Fifth Infantry, have returned home to Berkeley filled with enthusiasm over the new regime, and feeling like grown-up boys. For part of their drill work hereafter will be in the nature of scouting and maneuvering. Captain Laurence S. O'Toole, who was but recently elected commander of the local company, last night put his men through the second drill held at the armory on Addison street since their return from Atascadero, and informed them that as soon as the winter rains are over they must hike frequently to the country, with their tents and rations on their backs, ready for all the discomforts and emergencies of a soldier's camp life. Captain O'Toole, who is a son of the late pioneer physician, Dr. M. C. O'Toole, thus lays down the new law promulgated at Atascadero.

MUST BE UP-TO-DATE.

"A militiaman, to be an up-to-date fighting man, must accomplish three things: He must know how to shoot straight, march day after day without serious fatigue, and be able to provide himself with food and take care of himself properly in the field."

"The most marked difference between the old and new regime has been shown since the beginning of the maneuvers in the practical features of soldiering," added O'Toole. "It marks a new era in the development of the California guardsmen. Our work at Atascadero gave the men an idea of what is to come. They had to march into unknown and rough country, each man with his own rations and prepared to obtain his own food and water and cook his own food, just as he was doing active service in time of war. There were frequent drills in tent pitching. Two-thirds of the work was in the way of field maneuvers."

GUARD AND SCOUT.

"Henceforth the Berkeley company will be drilled in the scouting and patrolling, in advance and rear-guard work, with frequent overnight camps. In the event of their being called out for real fighting, their work as guardsmen would be in the line of patrolling and guarding and scouting. They are to be prepared for this service, the tendency of the regular army officers at Atascadero and at the officers' school at Monterey was to emphasize this form of instruction, with the idea that the militiamen, in time of war, would supplement the regulars by serving as scouts, guards and patrollers."

The Berkeley company is three years old, and numbers among its members students, clerks and waiters in many crafts. Captain O'Toole is endeavoring, in conjunction with his chief plans for the rebuilding of the company and the co-operation of merchants and employers of the guardsmen in various ways. A smoker is to be held in the armory at the end of this month.

Several bids received for printing the city ordinances in book form were received and referred to the committee of the whole.

A request made by Mrs. C. L. Bonnell for permission to move a frame building from Center street to the west side of San Antonio avenue, fifty feet north of Channing street, was referred to Commissioner Berry.

A request made by the Charity Organization Society of this city that an ordinance be passed prohibiting persons soliciting alms in Berkeley without permission of the council or chief of police, was referred to the committee of the whole.

ELKS' SMOKER IS GREAT SUCCESS

Pipe of Goodfellowship Enjoyed by Elks and Their Many Friends.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—More than five hundred members and guests enjoyed the smoker given by the Alameda Lodge of Elks given fellowhood at the new club-house on Santa Clara avenue. Informally marked the occasion and smoking was only one of the features of the evening. A vaudeville entertainment, featuring the pleasure of the guests. Elks and their friends gathered early and remained late into the evening smoking the pipe of goodfellowship, and enjoying a lively program of songs, monologues and imitations by outside talent. The singing class of the Oakland Turn Verein afforded the Elks and their friends a rare treat in the way of singing, and gave many selections, responding to loud cheers from the audience. The class is composed of 35 members whose voices are far above the average.

The program followed: Dan Casey; songs, Ed Healey; selections, Oakland Turn Verein; monologues, Mr. Dermott; monologues, Fred Woodruff; cornet, Mr. Woodruff; imitations, Joseph Mills; monologues, Mr. Gelder; Salome dance, "The Great Unknown"; solo, Arthur Morgan; violin solos, Chester Keller. Other numbers were also given.

A Dutch supper followed the program. The supper was served in the banquet hall down stairs, where good cheer and merriment reigned until late hours of the night. The singing class of the Oakland Turn Verein, for which the Elks had the greatest praise today.

NEW CUSTODIAN IS SELECTED FOR CALIFORNIA AXE

JUDGE EVERETT J. BROWN, one of the original captors of the Stanford axe.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 2.—C. A. Allen, '12, varsity third baseman and football player, was appointed custodian of the axe yesterday afternoon at the annual axe rally held on California field. After a parade to the First National Bank, where the axe was taken from the vault, the students serpentine to the bleachers.

Following a series of songs and yells, "Bob" Moulton, '11, in introducing H. A. Cloud, '06, the first speaker, stated that there was much confusion concerning the origin of the axe, and in order to clear this he had secured one of the original captors of the implement to tell of its history.

"Archie" Cloud said that the axe had been captured after the final intercollegiate baseball game of the spring of 1899, played that year in San Francisco. The year before Stanford had gained a victory over California, and at that time they had perfected the axe yell. At the game in 1899 the Stanford yell leader paraded before the California bleachers, carrying with him a small boy, carrying aloft the large weapon and yelling, "Give 'em the axe."

At the conclusion of the game, which was won from Stanford by a big score, a small band of California men, led by Everett Brown, '09, now superior judge of Alameda county, and of which Cloud was a member, took the Stanford guard-ians of the axe by surprise, and after a short struggle wrested it from them.

A chase ensued, extending all over the city of San Francisco, but the bearer, with the assistance of a young woman, finally succeeded in reaching Berkeley with his trophy.

J. M. Burke, '08, the other speaker at the rally, characterized the axe as the symbol of the California fighting spirit, and urged that from now on till the time of the big game, such enthusiasm be focused as would carry the team on the day of the contest, "clear across the line by its force."

William Greenlaw, '11, with a few words, transferred his rust in the axe to "Cheer" Allen, '12, who promised to keep it safely and be ready to pass it on to a future custodian at the rally next year.

After the singing of the two new bleacher songs, the trophy was again escorted to its resting place at the bank.

ALL SIGNS POINT TO THE BEAVERS BEING THE PENNANT WINNERS FOR SEASON 1910

WILLS FALTERS AND OAKS' CHANCES GO A-GLUMMERING

Inability of Seals' Discard to Stop Onrush of the Ewingites Virtually Gives Pennant to Portland Baseball Team

By BERT LOWRY.

SAN FRANCISCO 3, OAKLAND 2.

PUT away the old horn and the rattle. Turn down the light. Then put on the soft, soft pedal and play the mournful dirge, for it is all over now. Not between Ferdie and Edythe oh, no, not that. It is a sadder and more painful tale that is now going to be writ. THE OAKS LOST. There were phoning for a ton of red fire and telling the hired man to get out the old army musket. The band had been engaged and were tuning up on "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," and "Hark! the Conquering Heroes Are Coming." Alas and alack, though, somebody put something in the teacup, as Bob Edgren said, and GOOD NIGHT was sung in accents soft and low as far as the Oaks' chances for the pennant were concerned.

Alas! it was, Elsie dear and Lillian fair, and the rest of you that have plied your hopes in the Oaks. Don't it make you feel like fainting for a while when you have something right in your grasp and then along comes some rascal and takes it away from you? Well, this is just what happened to Handsome Harry and his warriors hold in the opening game of the San Francisco-Oakland series. Cal Ewing's men beat us by a score of 3 to 2.

Down in Vernon town Harry's men were doing all he could to keep us out and sent his star pitcher, Ray Dill, to the mound. He was a good one, but he was not against the Beavers, and it is a pity that from the south platted rings around the southpaw from the north he could have put this meant to us we would not have won that game. But Ray's will wasn't there, and that's all there is to the tale.

SEALS WIN BECAUSE WILLS WEAKENS.

Oh yes, Handsome Harry and his warriors were good. We will allow, and had a mighty classy article of work, in fact, the game from every angle. All the way through was a good one, but at that time Oaks got through his defenses and sent Ewing's men to the bat in the final of the ninth. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

Every man's very fresh when he took up the burdens, but he was tired when the round and saved us. The show was all over. Sutor started this spasm of the Seals and went to first a four with balls. Shelled the pitcher, and Ray Dill had walked Melchior, and it was a too hot for Wills to handle and it was as we said before, GOOD NIGHT.

HOW THE FIRST TALLIES WERE MADE.

After the Oaks had come out in the first three innings for the Seals, they beat out an infield hit. Melchior made a sacrifice and hit into a pretty exact double play. Volterton to Cameron, and Wares Melchior then shot in a fly ball down to Wares and Clegg to take the ball an awful good one. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

In the third Oakland tied 1 up. After Volterton had pined a fly ball to the field, Pearson was hit by a pitch and over second and Burns' careered score of Maggart hit to Sutor and was out at the bridge. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

Tommy Tennant, Anderson, Any to cut in with a wild pitch and Burns scored. Wills hit into a double play and filling up the bags, but Ray was a via the fan route, and that's all the Oaks got.

OAKS SHOULD HAVE WON IN THE NINTH.

Cutshaw opened the ninth frame, and the Oaks with a sacrifice from Clegg hit that pined him the middle of the field. Clegg, who supplied Edith Swander in right field, hit a beautiful home run that gave the Oaks a 3-2 lead. The score read at that time 3 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

That one run looked pretty big to me.

BANCROFT WILL TAKE MACK'S WORLD'S CHAMPION'S ON ISLAND TRIP

Athletics Plan to Invade Cuba to Show Natives How to Play.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—Business Manager Frank C. Bancroft of the Cincinnati Nationals has been engaged by the officers of the Philadelphia Athletics to take that team to Cuba and to play a series of games in Havana, Santiago and other cities during December and January.

He says the men will leave New York for Tampa, Fla., about the middle of November for Havana. Yesterday Manager Bancroft returned to Cincinnati, he found a telegram and a letter on his desk which settled the question of his going to Cuba. The letter came from the manager of the Cuban team, whose home is in Havana. It stated he would pay a handsome price for the Philadelphia Athletics for a month this winter.

Diamond Dust

Oakland tried hard, that's the answer, but Ralph Wills could not stem the onrush of the Seals. Right off the reel they began to hammer his curves to a fare-thee-well and it was only the wonderful and marvellous fielding behind him that kept the Beavers from making three times as many runs.

With the loss of that game hope has really gone and Oakland has little or no chance for the pennant this season, unless the Athletics should duplicate the wonderful performance of the Oaks of last week, and we also repeat this is something the fans do not look for.

Looking over the Oakland team, they have done well and are worthy of praise for the stand they have made in the season now closing. Injuries and sickness, with their pitchers in trouble on many occasions have beset the team. This was a great handicap to them and really lost them the pennant, that is to the writer's mind, for today nor at any other time can I see where Portland is one whit better than the Wolverines. But it is all over now, so to the victors let us hand the spoils.

Down from the north comes a story story concerned within the muddled brain of some club reporter who sees nothing in the world but the Portland baseball team and who thinks that baseball is not a clean sport. It is the story that Vernon laid down to Oakland. This is the same child who told in glowing headlines of how San Francisco was going to lay down to Oakland in their last series.

The fans know what happened in those series. Like all clean minded sportsmen, will pass by the ravings of the club and let it go at that. It is a pity, though, that such men as these should be allowed to write about baseball, lacking, as they do, all knowledge of the pastime from every angle.

The McCrecks are opposed to Judge Thomas F. Graham for re-election to the presidency of the Coast League National. They would be because they violated the rules of baseball in playing an ineligible player and were discovered and punished. They were, Judge Graham has been a fair-minded, clean official, a credit and an honor to the game, and it is just such men as him that have kept the sport where it is, the cleanest, best and grandest of all outdoor athletics.

Vernon aided well by Roy Hitt, went after the new pennant winners and gave them a pretty good game. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

Cutshaw was standing on first in the sixth inning, looking as if he was asleep. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

The Seals are going to have a benefit game over at Recreation park next Tuesday night. The game will be a double header, with the Oaks and the Seals. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

The directors of the Pacific Coast League will get together over at the St. Francis tomorrow night, and in probability the league will be organized before Saturday evening. Many important questions will come up and a lively time is expected to be had. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

Hitt Is Better Than Gregg; Senators Win From Angels

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—Jackie McGraw and Vean Gregg in a long and hard battle yesterday won for the Senators a victory over the Angels. Hitt, by doubling his home runs, was the hero of the game. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

Two terrific infield hits in the sixth, a double in the dusk by Clegg and a home run by Hitt, were the highlights of the game. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

BATTLING NELSON STILL THE BRIGHT LIGHT IN FIGHTDOOM

Durable Dane Has Kept Well His Popularity and Fans Delight to See Him in Action; Side Gossip of the Arena

By EDDIE SMITH.

THE pugilistic compass now points to a Battling Nelson-Owen Moran twenty-round match in San Francisco during the latter part of this month. Jimmy Coffroth is planning to stage the affair on Saturday afternoon, November 26, at Louie Blot's open air arena. The reason for the open air business and the gamble that Coffroth is willing to take on the weather is the fact that the Dreamland Pavilion, the only available one in San Francisco, is far and away too small for the staging of contests wherein Battling Nelson is a contestant.

The great number of fans who were turned away from the pavilion last Monday evening is proof that Nelson is the greatest card among the little fellows who have fought in San Francisco. Both Coffroth and Louie Blot are after Nelson, and if the ex-champion desires he can keep busy right here in San Francisco just as he did a few years back when he worked himself to the top of the ladder in the world of fistiana.

The reasons for this great popularity are numerous. Take the contest of Monday evening for instance. Nelson entered the ring with a man who outweighed him by at least six or seven pounds. And the fans who saw the Frankie Burns-Harry Baker contest will have a good opportunity to realize what a handicap he had to overcome.

They saw what happened to Baker when pitted against a man heavier than himself.

NELSON ALWAYS A MAN OF ACTION.

Did Nelson stall about the ring or use his years of experience for the first part of the contest and then make a hurricane dash at the finish? I should say not. He started with the clang of the bell that opened hostilities and never once did he stop. La Grave in the opinion of the writer, fairly and squarely earned the draw decision that was awarded him, and I am more than ever convinced that a ruling in favor of either man would have been an injustice to the loser.

If the referee was to have the right to rule against a man owing to the fact that he had tricked the other into a contest without weighing, then Nelson should have won, for although La Grave came from the contest, covered with glory at the end of a draw with Nelson, when it was the opinion of many that he would not even stick the limit, still I am of the opinion that the game still battles was the real hero of the occasion.

It is the fact of fact that Nelson was against and the fact that his boxing was bad at times, he never once faltered.

BATTLE NEEDED NO URGING.

At no time was it necessary for a man of his own weight and the same old story of the fight. The score read at that time 2 for the Oaks and 1 for the Seals. Ray Dill started the game in this town and when the pitcher's arm was tired, he put went the pitcher, and should have gone out long before, and Ray's arm is a little bit tired now.

Character IN Suit Cases

There is more character in a Suitcase or Traveling Bag than there is in a suit of clothes. When you travel, the measure of courtesy and accommodation accorded you is often determined by your "luggage." To some folks a suitcase is just a suitcase. The discriminating buyer knows that a "cheap" suitcase is dear if you get it for nothing. We never sold a "cheap" suitcase, but we do sell a goodly number of good ones at very near cheap prices. When you think of buying a suitcase or traveling bag, come in and let us show you what we mean by a "good one."

GIRL WITH THE PIANO WILL COME TO ORPHEUM NEXT WEEK

AUGUSTA GLOSE, who will appear at the Oakland Orpheum next week.

There is a treat in store for lovers of good music at the Orpheum next Monday night.

Almost every theater-goer who has kept in trim during the last four years knows Augusta Glose—The Girl With the Piano. If you have been to vaudeville lately you'll remember her as the girl who gave you an interesting half hour at the piano. If you're real up-to-date and know what's going on among the stage folk you'll remember she was in Buffalo recently and was entertained much here.

Miss Glose didn't adopt the stage for the limelight or the glory—she adopted it because it appeared to be the best way for her to make her living.

Miss Glose is an unusual actor for any one of the following reasons: She never plays the stock market; she has no produce array of diamonds, so, of course, she's never been robbed; she's never been in a runaway automobile.

The stage sees her but a few weeks in the year. Other times she's at home with her father and mother. In the summer you'll find the whole Glose family in a bungalow in the Catskills overlooking the Hudson. Her father, Adolf Glose, is a musician of note—it was he who educated his daughter. She was to have been sent to Europe when she was sixteen, but a sudden change in affairs put a musical education on and in the future. Her father's health failed and she started out to make her own living. After a short stay in the U.S. she went to musical comedy, where she made her hit and from there to vaudeville.

Most actors have their ambition. Some cry for the moon; Gustaf Lofius wants to be a nun. Lillian Gillette is a naturalist; Lionel Barrymore is one of athletes; Augusta Glose is greatly interested in alships.

Miss Glose will appear at the Orpheum next Monday night.

SANTA FE BUILDS BIG ICEING PLANT

Stockton Is to Be Important Refrigerating Point On Line.

STOCKTON, Nov. 2.—Work was commenced here yesterday on one of the largest iceing plants in the West and Industrial Agent J. R. Hayden stated that the building would be rushed to completion as most of the machinery has already arrived. The pre-cooling and ice distributing departments will be constructed later, but finished in plenty of time for next summer, when Stockton will become a most important refrigerating point on the Santa Fe Railroad.

The company has applied to the city council for a franchise or a spur track on Taylor street for two blocks to connect the main line with the iceing switch. This will be an elevated tramway for freight cars, and the iceing plant. Some of the residents protested against the spur, claiming it would block the way to their homes and also damage their property.

The council postponed action until next meeting but it is believed the franchise will be granted. The big plant will be 1500 feet in length. The site, which is just outside of the city limits, includes four blocks.

RECALL OF SEATTLE'S MAYOR NOW CERTAIN

SEATTLE (Wash.), Nov. 2.—A sufficient number of signatures have already been placed on the recall petition to invoke the recall against Mayor Hiram Gill according to a statement made yesterday by O. L. Miller, chairman of the committee having in charge the circulation of petitions.

"We have more than 8000 names already, a sufficient number to invoke the recall," said Miller. "When we finish the circulation of the petitions I believe we will have the signatures of 12,000 voters."

It is the purpose of the reform league to present the petitions to the council in time to insure holding the recall election in December.

SOMNAMBULIST WALKS INTO SEA TO DEATH

SEATTLE Nov. 2.—Claus Lundell, a miner from the Kowak district, was drowned at Nemo shortly before the steamer Northwestern departed for Seattle. He was a somnambulist and walked out of a lodging house into Bering sea.

A. L. Zepf, transportation manager of the Northern Steamship company, reports that records of the papers of his company show that they handled $800,000 of ill-gotten and innuendo dust during the season just ended.

Allowing the moderate sum of $200,000 for gold carried out by miners in their pouches, the total output for the new camp's first season was $1,000,000.

BISHOP BLESSES NEW SPIRE WHILE 235 FEET IN AIR

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 2.—Standing on a frail platform 235 feet in the air, Right Rev. Nicholas C. Matz, bishop of the Diocese of Colorado, yesterday sanctified and blessed the capstone of the west spire of the new Roman Catholic Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

Bishop Matz, accompanied by several priests and a number of newspaper men, as ended to the platform in the rough elevator used to carry material during the construction of the twin spires of the cathedral.

A large crowd gathered on the sidewalk below to watch the unique company.
